AFL-CIO Aide Speaks

Parade And Rally Spark Drive To Buy American

Only a comparative handful turned out for a "Buy American — Buy Union Label" rally Wednesday night at Memorial Auditorium despite a parade which attracted hundreds into the downtown area.

Less than 75 heard Paul R. Ornburn of Washington, a representative of the Union Label and Service Trades Department of the AFL-CIO, speak briefly on the need for demanding the union label when purchasing merchandise or patronizing services.

Ornburn substituted for Joseph Lewis, secretary - treasurer of the union organization, who was unable to attend. He was introduced by Joseph Winters, secretary-treasurer of the Trades and Labor Council, which is sponsoring the campaign.

In his brief address, he departed from a prepared text in which he pointed out beneficial results —securing jobs, maintaining fair wages, creating prosperity and protecting America — cannot be obtained unless consumers demand the union label, shop card or union button when making purchases.

The demand for American-made products will help improve the American standard of living and also is effective in offsetting anti-labor propaganda, he said. "It is the answer of free workers and unregimented management to communism."

"When a community thrives on the prosperity created by the sale of high-quality, union - made merchandise, a wholesome political result is the arousing of voters to defeat anti-union lawmaker," Ornburn's text said.

The rally at the auditorium included the displays of union-made products from 12 area industries. Displaying their lines were Edwin M. Knowles China Co., Harker Pottery Co., New Castle Refractories, Taylor, Smith & Taylor Pottery, Hall China Co., Sterling China Co., Louthan Manufacturing Co., T-K Roofing Co., Patterson Foundry & Machine Co., Globe Brick Co., Homer Laughlin China Co., and National Church Supply Co.

Highlighting the parade was the first appearance here of the crack drill team from Post 66 since it won the national Veterans of Foreign Wars competition in New York two weeks ago.

The parade also included seven area bands, a drill team from Co. B, 778th Tank Battalion of the Army Reserve, and representatives of local labor oganizations.

Earl N. Crytzer was general chairman of the committee which arranged the parade and program.

Aim To Forestall Invasion

Ike, Dulles Map Strategy To Avert War In Far East

Asian Allies Ask U.S. To Pledge Aid

Public Statement Seen On Results Of Rhode Island Talk

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles today discussed strategy aimed at preventing any full-scale war in the Communist threatened Formosa Strait.

Dulles arrived at the summer White House by plane from Washington at 10:27 a.m.

He and the President got quickly to the business of studying how to forestall an invasion by Red China of the offshore islands held by the Chinese Nationalists.

In advance of the meeting there was speculation it might produce a public statement by Eisenhower or Dulles.

Dulles will lay before Eisenhower an appeal by Asiatic allies that the United States pledge itself to fight any Chinese Communist invasion of Quemoy. Diplomats representing seven Manila Pact countries are understood to have urged this action. Those nations are Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand.

The United States already is bound by treaty to help defend the main Chiang Kai-shek bastions—Formosa and the nearby Pescadores. But Congress has given Eisenhower discretion whether such defense calls for fighting too for Quemoy, Matsu and other smaller islands held by the Nationalists.

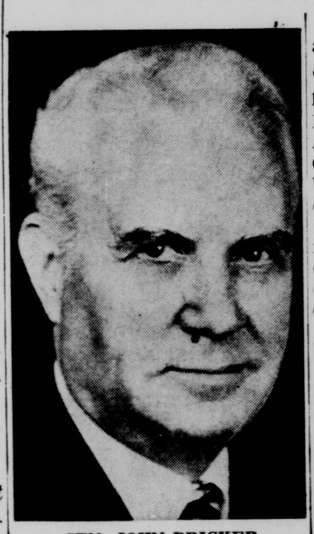
U.S. policy for months has been to keep the Reds guessing.

Red China Warns U.S. Planes, Ships Keep Out

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Communist China posted a new keep-out warning today to any American ships and planes that might be sent to help Nationalist Chinese in Formosa and garrisons on Quemoy and other offshore islands.

Kickoff Dinner Set Monday

500 Will Hear Bricker And O'Neill



SEN. JOHN BRICKER

With a capacity crowd of 500 already assured, reservations were closed today for a countywide Republican campaign kickoff dinner Monday night at 6:30 in St. Aloysius School Hall at which Gov. C. William O'Neill and Sen. John W. Bricker will be the main speakers.

State, district and county GOP nominees for the Nov. 4 general election also will attend and party officials and workers from throughout the county are expected.

Atty. James L. McSweeney of Wellsville, county chairman, will preside. Invocation will be by Fr. Robert G. Moorhead, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church. A musical program is planned.

The dinner will mark the opening of the GOP campaign for the fall election. Other state candidates scheduled to attend include: Paul M. Herbert, for lieutenant governor; Ted W. Brown, for secretary of state; Roger W. Tracy for state treasurer, and William Saxbe, for attorney general.

Gov. O'Neill and wife are flying from Columbus and will land at Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

A delegation of county party leaders, headed by McSweeney, will meet Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill about 5:30 and escort them to the city.

U.S. Has Deputy Marshals If Needed In Little Rock

By The Associated Press

The federal government has enlisted civilians to serve as deputy marshals if needed at Little Rock.

Several Southern schools integrated peacefully. Trouble, however, was reported at two points.

Court-ordered integration proceeded at Van Buren, Ark., where white students Tuesday had jeered 13 Negroes.

The Negroes went to high school without apparent incident Wednesday. But Wednesday night 16-year-old Larry Bell said he and two other Negroes left the building during the morning because white boys in their classes threatened to beat them after school.

Bell said neither he nor seven other Negroes enrolled planned to return to school today. School officials have refused to comment.

At Greensboro, N.C., a small group displaying a Kux Klux Klan banner and a Confederate flag met at a school. Even so, five Negro children, three of whom entered the school last year, attended the opening session without trouble.

Application blanks for deputy U.S. marshal did not mention the racial situation at Little Rock's Central High School, but one applicant said there was no doubt he was signing for duty at Central if it reopens as an integrated school.

The U.S. Supreme Court meets Sept. 11, four days before the school opens, to hear the Little Rock school board's plea for a 30-month breathing spell. The NAACP will ask that integration be resumed at once.

At Fort Smith, just across the Arkansas River from Van Buren, two elementary schools admitted Negroes. One of the youngsters attended school with white children last semester in Fort Smith, where integration is voluntary. The Arkansas cities of Hoxie, Fayetteville and Charleston also went ahead peaceably with integration.

Four Kentucky high schools desegregated for the first time. There were no incidents as two Negroes attended white schools in Charlotte, one of the cities in which North Carolina's first school integration took place last year.

Four Negroes plan to enter white schools opening today at Winston-Salem, N.C.

Integration moved forward a step in one Virginia case but failed to advance in another.

U.S. Dist. Judge Walter Hoffman rejected the Norfolk school board's plea for a delay until next year in desegregation. The jurist said he may reconsider his decision if the U.S. Supreme Court grants a delay at Little Rock or a review of that case.

A member of the Arlington County school board told another federal judge that six Negroes' applications to attend a white school were rejected because of low achievement.

The testimony came at a hearing to determine if 30 Negroes must be admitted to the Virginia county's white schools. The county board advised teachers that school openings, postponed from today to Monday, may be further delayed.

Chester Talk Set On Aid For Loss In Storm

Federal Official And City Group To Meet On Fund Assistance

Chester city officials and a representative of a federal agency were scheduled to confer today or Friday on application by the city for a federal loan to finance repairs to the storm sewer system damaged after heavy rains in July.

Mayor Burton Ward announced at a meeting of Council Wednesday night the Philadelphia office of the Community Facility Administration was to send a representative to Chester to discuss the financial assistance.

Damage to the storm sewer system was estimated at some $66,000. A representative of the agency at Philadelphia has advised City Solicitor William Conklin a bond issue will be necessary to obtain the loan, with the agency guaranteeing to purchase the bonds if it is authorized.

Because of the absence of Councilmen Charles Kology and James Waggle, no action was taken on a proposed group insurance plan for city employes.

The life and hospitalization plan, outlined by Richard Milner and Robert Murray of a district insurance firm, would be a 50-50 program with the city paying a half of the premium and the employes the other half. The program and others will be submitted to Council when all members are present.

An allotment of $200 was authorized for the City Park, part of a $500 grant slated for the park.

Council approved a parking ban on the west side of 5th St. at the park to provide space for out-of-town buses bringing high school football teams and bands for games this fall.

Council agreed to wait until all members were present before taking action on a proposal by Mayor Ward to remove the traffic signal at Virginia Ave. and 3rd St. and employe stop signs at the intersection.

No action was taken on a request by Mayor Ward to rent an auto shortwave transceiver to be used with the operation of the radar speed check equipment.

Cashdollar read a letter from Harry Schwender of Charleston, engineering director of the State Road Commission, concerning recommendations for changes in traffic signals to relieve traffic congestion on Route 30 in the city.

Council gave final approval of an amendment increasing the membership of the sanitary board from three to four. The board will supervise planning, construction and operation of the proposed sewage disposal system.

The Rev. Howard H. Bright of the Methodist Church gave the invocation.

Political Leaders Pledge No Smear

WASHINGTON (AP) — The heads of both major political parties have promised to avoid smear tactics in the congressional campaign.

But in signing clean campaign pledges Wednesday, the chairman of the Democratic and Republican national committees made it abundantly clear they are not barring their candidates from discussing such topics as racial integration and the way President Eisenhower does his job.

Meade Alcorn, Republican chairman, and Paul M. Butler, Democratic chieftain, reached one of their rare agreements at a news conference after formally endorsing a code of fair campaign practices worked out by a national committee headed by Charles P. Taft.

They agreed they don't like the statements and the attitude of Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas on school integration. Faubus has threatened to close any Arkansas schools that federal courts order integrated.

Alcorn said the kind of statements made by Faubus about the Supreme Court's antisegregation opinion and other phases of the controversy "do not contribute to the solution of this problem, either from a Republican or a Democratic standpoint."

Butler said Faubus' statements "do not constitute the attitude of the Democratic party, do not reflect its views and the Democratic party repudiates such statements by Faubus."

Alcorn was asked if he would classify as dirty politics the Democrats' charges that Eisenhower is a part-time President. The GOP chairman replied he felt this transgressed the pledge's ban against the "use of campaign material of any sort which misrepresents, distorts or otherwise falsifies the facts. . . ."

But Butler said he doesn't interpret the code as restricting the Democrats from making the part-time President charge "with some degree of public acceptance of it as a fact."

In signing the pledge, the two chairmen went on record as condemning "any appeal to prejudice based on race, creed, or national origin."

Freeway Site Not Fixed Yet, City Explains

Mayor Points Out All Possible Areas Are Being Studied

An engineering survey for a proposed $2.5 million East Liverpool freeway is moving ahead on schedule, but the location of some segments in West End — particularly a W. 8th St. overpass — has not been pinpointed exactly, Mayor Fred P. Lawrence told Council Wednesday night.

The mayor reported on the engineering work in response to an inquiry from Councilman Samuel Webber of the Fourth Ward. The councilman said residents who have seen survey crews at work far from the supposed route of the freeway have become fearful that their property may be affected.

As in any other major engineering job, the survey crews are working out several alternate routes, the mayor explained. So the fact a survey crew has been working in a particular area does not mean it ultimately will be affected when the route is determined, he added.

"The engineers are hard at work on a survey of the entire area near the original proposed centerline for the new road. In doing so, they survey all the property for some distance in each direction because it has not been determined exactly where the freeway will go.

"I point that out because when a property owner sees a crew of men surveying quite some distance from the freeway line it doesn't mean that's where the road will go. Some people have become unduly excited and think their property will be involved.

"Several plans are under consideration for the interchange at W. 8th St. At best, it will be very costly, so a good deal of thought has to be given to it. The survey is progressing on schedule, although the exact final location is not definitely set. We're not in a position to announce exactly where it will go and what properties will be affected. When a decision is made, the people will be notified in plenty of time."

Webber commented that most West End residents "are oldtimers in that area and it's a serious proposition to them."

"If they can be kept up to date as the plans go along it will be appreciated," he added.

Construction on the first stage of the city freeway is scheduled to begin next spring. A contract for more than $100,000 to prepare plans is held by the engineering firm of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester.

The freeway section will start in California Hollow near the city limits, follow Carpenters Run into West End, cross W. 8th St. and then loop around the City Hospital site to W. 3rd and Monroe Sts.

28 Cases Due In Grand Jury

Panel Will Convene Tuesday At Lisbon

At least one manslaughter charge and two cutting charges are slated for study by the Columbiana County Grand Jury which convenes Tuesday at Lisbon, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw reported.

One manslaughter case, stemming from a traffic death, is among the 28 criminal cases to be reviewed by the panel, while 2 other manslaughter cases may be studied, the prosecutor said.

The Grand Jury is scheduled to study four cases Tuesday afternoon, hearing nine witnesses, and should complete its work late Friday afternoon, Brokaw said.

The September term of Common Pleas Court officially opens Monday at noon with a luncheon of the County Bar Association at the Presbyterian Church at Lisbon.

The criminal docket for the panel includes five grand larceny cases, two robberies, four of issuance of fraudulent checks, four forgeries, one case of driving while drunk, one of breaking and entering, one possession of obscene literature, one aiding and abetting in the issuing of a fraudulent check, one selling liquor to minors, two for destruction of property and one of taking liberties with a minor.

The 50 prospective Grand Jury members will report Tuesday morning at 9. The panel will be impaneled and taken for an inspection of the County Jail by Sheriff Russell VanFossan.

The Bar Association will meet in the afternoon at the Courthouse for a business session with Atty. Francis Lang of East Liverpool, president, in charge.

Driver Jailed After Mishap

West Virginia Man Also Gets $300 Fine

Gene C. Dunway, 37, of Ranson, W. Va., was fined $300 and costs and given a 10-day jail term when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court to a drunken driving charge filed after a crash Wednesday night in the 1700 block of Dresden Ave. in which his auto and another were damaged heavily.

Police said Dunway pulled out of the parking lot of the Kin-Z-Bar, 1755 Dresden Ave., into the path of a 1958 sedan operated by Jerry E. Carroll, 67, of Lisbon R. D. 3. The crash caused severe damage to the right front of Carroll's car and the front of Dunway's 1956 two - door sedan, officers said.

Dunway pleaded guilty to the charge. His right to drive in Ohio also was suspended for three months. The crash was timed at 10:07. It was the only overnight mishap in East Liverpool.

Carroll told police he was driving north on Dresden about 35 to 40 miles an hour when Dunway pulled across the traffic lane in front of him.

Red China's Bombardment Eases More

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Communist bombardment of the offshore Chinese Nationalist islands slackened even more today.

Nationalist defense headquarters reported that up to early afternoon only 144 shells landed on the island complex off the Chinese mainland.

The bombardment Wednesday also was relatively light — 740 shells.

The U.S. carriers Essex and Midway and the cruiser Los Angeles neared Far Eastern waters to join the 7th Fleet guarding the Formosa Strait.

These warships plus additional Air Force units apparently comprised the new help Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot said was on its way to aid the Chinese Nationalists.

Switch In Red China Strategy Seen By Japs

TOKYO (AP) — Top Japanese military experts said today America's "hard line" in the Formosa crisis had forced Red China to abandon plans for an invasion of Quemoy in favor of an attempt to starve it into submission with an artillery blockade.

They said the switch in Red strategy was prompted by President Eisenhower's recent statement regarding the increased importance of the offshore islands to the defense of Formosa and the bolstering of American sea nd ir powaer in the Far East.

On Laura Ave. Site

Council Approves Project Of Water Pumping Station

Legislation clearing the way for the water department to construct a $25,000 relay pumping station on Laura Ave. and repair damage from a fire at its filtration plant April 3 was given unanimous approval by City Council at a special session Wednesday night.

In connection with the relay station, Council authorized the Board of Public Utilities — which administers the system — to call for contractors' bids for furnishing labor, material and equipment and performing all the work in accordance with plans that already have been prepared.

Containing an emergency clause, the legislation will go into immediate effect, allowing the board to issue the call for bids within a few days. The new station will be used to relay water from the low service reservoir on Thompson Ave. to the department's high service area — the Huston Hill reservoir and the twin standpipes on Henry Ave., North Side.

The overall cost of the project will be approximately $30,000, as $5,000 previously was authorized for engineering and preparation of plans. The storage capacity of the low service area is much greater than that of the high service area, but because of changes resulting from the city's recent growth the heaviest drain is on the Huston Hill reservoir and the standpipes.

The relay station will allow the department to move excess water from the Thompson Ave. reservoir to the higher reservoir and the standpipes. It also will be useful in case of a breakdown in the pumping main between the plant in Klondyke and the high service area.

The city already owns the site where the relay station will be built. It is on Laura Ave. at Thomas Alley, where a similar booster station stood many years ago.

Council also approved legislation authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids for repair of the fire damage at its filtration plant. The city has received a $20,000 insurance settlement for the loss, which was concentrated in the tile roof and the upper floor of the two-story brick plant.

A third piece of legislation ratified the board's action in immediately replacing two chlorinators an a solution feeder that were destroyed in the fire. The cost was $3,410.

Council Votes Car Meters In 2 Short Areas

Extension of the parking meter zone into two short stretches of the downtown area was authorized by Council Wednesday night.

Council approved installation of meters on the east side of Market St. between E. 4th and E. 3rd Sts. and on the west side of Walnut St. between E. 5th St. and E. 4th St.

The two short stretches were added in an omnibus meter ordinance that Council approved to bring up to date in one piece of legislation all the areas in which the devices have been placed since they first were installed in 1947.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper explained that the metered areas formerly were listed in scattered pieces of legislation enacted from time to time over the 11-year period. The main intent of the new ordinance is to list all the areas in the proper order in one piece of legislation for easy reference by enforcement authorities, he said.

In the preparation of the new ordinance, Council agreed to include the short stretches of Walnut St. and Market St. At present there are no meters on Market St. south of 4th St. The east side of Walnut St. is metered, but there are none of the devices on the west side between E. 5th and E. 4th. The block-long stretch is taken up mainly with driveways and yellow-lined stretches of curb.

Political Leaders Pledge No Smear

WASHINGTON (AP) — The heads of both major political parties have promised to avoid smear tactics in the congressional campaign.

But in signing clean campaign pledges Wednesday, the chairman of the Democratic and Republican national committees made it abundantly clear they are not barring their candidates from discussing such topics as racial integration and the way President Eisenhower does his job.

Meade Alcorn, Republican chairman, and Paul M. Butler, Democratic chieftain, reached one of their rare agreements at a news conference after formally endorsing a code of fair campaign practices worked out by a national committee headed by Charles P. Taft.

They agreed they don't like the statements and the attitude of Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas on school integration. Faubus has threatened to close any Arkansas schools that federal courts order integrated.

Alcorn said the kind of statements made by Faubus about the Supreme Court's antisegregation opinion and other phases of the controversy "do not contribute to the solution of this problem, either from a Republican or a Democratic standpoint."

Butler said Faubus' statements "do not constitute the attitude of the Democratic party, do not reflect its views and the Democratic party repudiates such statements by Faubus."

Alcorn was asked if he would classify as dirty politics the Democrats' charges that Eisenhower is a part-time President. The GOP chairman replied he felt this transgressed the pledge's ban against the "use of campaign material of any sort which misrepresents, distorts or otherwise falsifies the facts. . . ."

But Butler said he doesn't interpret the code as restricting the Democrats from making the part-time President charge "with some degree of public acceptance of it as a fact."

In signing the pledge, the two chairmen went on record as condemning "any appeal to prejudice based on race, creed, or national origin."

Freeway Site Not Fixed Yet, City Explains

Mayor Points Out All Possible Areas Are Being Studied

An engineering survey for a proposed $2.5 million East Liverpool freeway is moving ahead on schedule, but the location of some segments in West End — particularly a W. 8th St. overpass — has not been pinpointed exactly, Mayor Fred P. Lawrence told Council Wednesday night.

The mayor reported on the engineering work in response to an inquiry from Councilman Samuel Webber of the Fourth Ward. The councilman said residents who have seen survey crews at work far from the supposed route of the freeway have become fearful that their property may be affected.

As in any other major engineering job, the survey crews are working out several alternate routes, the mayor explained. So the fact a survey crew has been working in a particular area does not mean it ultimately will be affected when the route is determined, he added.

"The engineers are hard at work on a survey of the entire area near the original proposed centerline for the new road. In doing so, they survey all the property for some distance in each direction because it has not been determined exactly where the freeway will go.

"I point that out because when a property owner sees a crew of men surveying quite some distance from the freeway line it doesn't mean that's where the road will go. Some people have become unduly excited and think their property will be involved.

"Several plans are under consideration for the interchange at W. 8th St. At best, it will be very costly, so a good deal of thought has to be given to it. The survey is progressing on schedule, although the exact final location is not definitely set. We're not in a position to announce exactly where it will go and what properties will be affected. When a decision is made, the people will be notified in plenty of time."

Webber commented that most West End residents "are oldtimers in that area and it's a serious proposition to them."

"If they can be kept up to date as the plans go along it will be appreciated," he added.

Construction on the first stage of the city freeway is scheduled to begin next spring. A contract for more than $100,000 to prepare plans is held by the engineering firm of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester.

The freeway section will start in California Hollow near the city limits, follow Carpenters Run into West End, cross W. 8th St. and then loop around the City Hospital site to W. 3rd and Monroe Sts.

Council Approves Project Of Water Pumping Station

Legislation clearing the way for the water department to construct a $25,000 relay pumping station on Laura Ave. and repair damage from a fire at its filtration plant April 3 was given unanimous approval by City Council at a special session Wednesday night.

In connection with the relay station, Council authorized the Board of Public Utilities — which administers the system — to call for contractors' bids for furnishing labor, material and equipment and performing all the work in accordance with plans that already have been prepared.

Containing an emergency clause, the legislation will go into immediate effect, allowing the board to issue the call for bids within a few days. The new station will be used to relay water from the low service reservoir on Thompson Ave. to the department's high service area — the Huston Hill reservoir and the twin standpipes on Henry Ave., North Side.

The overall cost of the project will be approximately $30,000, as $5,000 previously was authorized for engineering and preparation of plans. The storage capacity of the low service area is much greater than that of the high service area, but because of changes resulting from the city's recent growth the heaviest drain is on the Huston Hill reservoir and the standpipes.

The relay station will allow the department to move excess water from the Thompson Ave. reservoir to the higher reservoir and the standpipes. It also will be useful in case of a breakdown in the pumping main between the plant in Klondyke and the high service area.

The city already owns the site where the relay station will be built. It is on Laura Ave. at Thomas Alley, where a similar booster station stood many years ago.

Council also approved legislation authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids for repair of the fire damage at its filtration plant. The city has received a $20,000 insurance settlement for the loss, which was concentrated in the tile roof and the upper floor of the two-story brick plant.

A third piece of legislation ratified the board's action in immediately replacing two chlorinators an a solution feeder that were destroyed in the fire. The cost was $3,410.

Council Votes Car Meters In 2 Short Areas

Extension of the parking meter zone into two short stretches of the downtown area was authorized by Council Wednesday night.

Council approved installation of meters on the east side of Market St. between E. 4th and E. 3rd Sts. and on the west side of Walnut St. between E. 5th St. and E. 4th St.

The two short stretches were added in an omnibus meter ordinance that Council approved to bring up to date in one piece of legislation all the areas in which the devices have been placed since they first were installed in 1947.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper explained that the metered areas formerly were listed in scattered pieces of legislation enacted from time to time over the 11-year period. The main intent of the new ordinance is to list all the areas in the proper order in one piece of legislation for easy reference by enforcement authorities, he said.

In the preparation of the new ordinance, Council agreed to include the short stretches of Walnut St. and Market St. At present there are no meters on Market St. south of 4th St. The east side of Walnut St. is metered, but there are none of the devices on the west side between E. 5th and E. 4th. The block-long stretch is taken up mainly with driveways and yellow-lined stretches of curb.

Driver Jailed After Mishap

West Virginia Man Also Gets $300 Fine

Gene C. Dunway, 37, of Ranson, W. Va., was fined $300 and costs and given a 10-day jail term when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court to a drunken driving charge filed after a crash Wednesday night in the 1700 block of Dresden Ave. in which his auto and another were damaged heavily.

Police said Dunway pulled out of the parking lot of the Kin-Z-Bar, 1755 Dresden Ave., into the path of a 1958 sedan operated by Jerry E. Carroll, 67, of Lisbon R. D. 3. The crash caused severe damage to the right front of Carroll's car and the front of Dunway's 1956 two - door sedan, officers said.

Dunway pleaded guilty to the charge. His right to drive in Ohio also was suspended for three months. The crash was timed at 10:07. It was the only overnight mishap in East Liverpool.

Carroll told police he was driving north on Dresden about 35 to 40 miles an hour when Dunway pulled across the traffic lane in front of him.

Protests U.S. Balloons

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government protested in a note published here today that the U.S. Air Force is sending balloons equipped with automatic cameras and two-way radios over Soviet soil.

Red China's Bombardment Eases More

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Communist bombardment of the offshore Chinese Nationalist islands slackened even more today.

Nationalist defense headquarters reported that up to early afternoon only 144 shells landed on the island complex off the Chinese mainland.

The bombardment Wednesday also was relatively light — 740 shells.

The U.S. carriers Essex and Midway and the cruiser Los Angeles neared Far Eastern waters to join the 7th Fleet guarding the Formosa Strait.

These warships plus additional Air Force units apparently comprised the new help Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot said was on its way to aid the Chinese Nationalists.

Switch In Red China Strategy Seen By Japs

TOKYO (AP) — Top Japanese military experts said today America's "hard line" in the Formosa crisis had forced Red China to abandon plans for an invasion of Quemoy in favor of an attempt to starve it into submission with an artillery blockade.

They said the switch in Red strategy was prompted by President Eisenhower's recent statement regarding the increased importance of the offshore islands to the defense of Formosa and the bolstering of American sea nd ir powaer in the Far East.

Council Receives New Bill

2 Storm Damage Claims Rejected

Two claims for property damage on Dresden Ave., stemming from a flash flood that hit East Liverpool after a torrential rain in July, were rejected by Council Wednesday night, while a new bill against the city as a result of the same storm was referred for investigation.

The rejected claims were filed by Charles Keuper of Dresden Ave., who sought $5,742 for damage to his home and furnishings, and Bob Schmidt, for $123 for damage to his store and service station, also on Dresden Ave. In each instance, they alleged that storm water poured onto their property from the hillside above.

Councilman H. A. Tullis, claims committee chairman, said the Keuper claim was rejected after investigation by his committee, along with Engineer George S. Bloomgren, Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

The committee was given a claim for $250 from Mrs. Beulah Jakes of Central Ave. for alleged damage to her home and furnishings in an overflow of the nearby East End Run.

Council requested legislation for its next meeting Sept. 15 to permit vacating of Puritan Alley in the vicinity of the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. plant. When the firm filed the request several months ago, it said the space will be used for parking.

Council acted last night after it was advised that Cassius Metsch, who owns property on nearby Ohio Ave., said he would have no objection so long as it does not include any part of Ohio Ave.

A new River Rd. oil terminal company headed by J. E. Schwade advised Council it wishes to buy or lease a 150-foot stretch of city-owned riverfront property to clear the way for a proposed construction of a 350-foot concrete retaining wall. The wall will be erected as part of a new riverfront facility the company expects to build.

However, the 150-foot stretch of city ground lies along part of the section where the company expects to build the wall.

Council approved an amendment to the 1958 appropriation ordinance providing $2,500 to pay the salaries of school crossing guards through Dec. 31. The measure also provides $6,500 for the income tax office — $3,500 for salaries and $3,000 for printing and supplies—plus $550 for wages of Thompson Park employes.

Council also approved payment of a $26 claim filed against the city by Chester Harris, 1136 St. George St., for damage to his auto July 27 when it dropped into an open manhole.

The finance committee was given a letter from the Health Board requesting a $500 appropriation to "hire the services of an expert milk sanitarian to assist in correcting numerous violations in the city."

Councilman Samuel Webber asked Maggianetti what action has been taken on a request to restore a traffic signal on W. 8th St. at Edwards Ave. for use during school hours. The light formerly used there has been replaced by an amber warning blinker.

A State Highway Department official was here Tuesday to make "peak load surveys" on the street and he will recommend what action should be taken on the request, the director said.

Webber also suggested that the police department make frequent safety checks on buses used by East Liverpool transportation companies to assure they are in good working condition. He cited the case of a Holtz Transportation Co. bus that rolled backward over the brink of a Lisbon St. hillside a few weeks ago after the axle broke as it moved upgrade.

Maggianetti replied he is in favor of frequent safety checks, but he does not believe police have that power. However, he said the state has the authority to check the buses, which it did earlier this year.

Tullis also reported a complaint against the Holtz firm. He said one of its buses broke down Wednesday on Pennsylvania Ave. at Mulberry St. and the passengers were told: "This is the end of the line; the bus broke down."

When a passenger protested and asked how she would get to her destination, the driver replied: "That's your problem," the councilman said.

Tullis said he received a series of telephoned complaints that the Putnam St. grade became very slippery after a city truck spread oil on it yesterday — part of a citywide project. He said residents complained the oil was "too heavy."

The director replied that he doesn't believe the oil was applied too heavily.

"In a couple of days it will soak in and create a good surface," he said. "That street was oiled once previously, leaving pieces of hard surface, and the new oil creates a hazard," he said.

It was announced that the Beaver County Pomona Grange will meet Sept. 13 at the Hookstown Grange. Election of officers will take place in the afternoon and fifth degree work will be confered in the evening.

Mrs. Charles Brucker, home economics chairman, announced plans for a public penny supper to be held on Wednesday, Sept. 17, in the Grange Hall basement. Serving will be from 5 to 8 p. m.

The Men's Club of the Grange will meet Tuesday for election of officers.

Mr. George Hendricks, chairman of the fair committee thanked all who helped with the success of the event held in August.

A change in time for all future Grange meetings, from 8:30 to 8, was announced.

Hostesses were, Mrs. Gen Gianvito of Fairview and Mrs. Laura McMillin of Five Points. The mystery package was won by Mrs. Gianvito.

Variations On A Theme By Eaton

Some Americans are so sore about Cyrus S. Eaton's citizen-diplomacy with the Soviet Union they throb with pain when his name is mentioned.

Others are more curious than sore. It is a strange situation — this Canadian-born capitalist who persistently tries to establish rapport with the leading figures of the world's only Communist government.

But as long as it doesn't become strange enough to get Mr. Eaton into legal trouble for practicing diplomacy without a license, the rest of us can take it for its face value, which is the way any personal diplomatic effort must be appraised.

Mr. Eaton is reported to have told Premier Khrushchev in Moscow that U.S. capitalists do not want war because taxes would go up, which does no credit to his humanitarianism. The death rate would go up, too.

Premier Khrushchev is reported to have told Mr. Eaton he is convinced the American people do not want war but he is not sure about their government—and that is a more fruitful theme than Mr. Eaton's notion about taxes. This is precisely what President Eisenhower could say about the Soviet Union—that its people do not want war but he is not sure about their government.

It is what President Wilson said about the Germans under Kaiser Wilhelm and what President Roosevelt said about the Germans under Hitler. It is what was said about the Italians under Mussolini and the Japanese under Tojo. And, with variations, it is what the Kaiser, Der Fuehrer, Il Duce and the Keeper of the Rising Sun said about the Americans and their government.

But it can be recalled easily that Americans did want war against the Germans, the Italians and the Japanese. And it can be surmised just as easily that most Germans, Italians and Japanese wanted war against the United States, just as it can be surmised that Americans would want war against the Soviet Union if the Soviet Union ever did the one thing that could provoke war — attack U.S. military forces wherever they happened to be performing their duty.

That would include the duty they are doing at this moment in Taiwan Straits, a point Mr. Eaton apparently did not mention.

You're As Old As You Are

There will be Legonnaires in Chicago this week who will feel as spry as spring lambs.

They will be telling one another they have lost none of that old bounce — and it will be true, in a limited sense. They can be as bouncy as they ever were, for a few hours.

All of us are as old as we are, not as old as we feel. It's fortunate, too, because to offset the days when we feel like kittens there are days when we feel like very old, decrepit tigers with acute mange and more miseries than any one tiger should be expected to bear.

But about the Legonnaires who will be attending the 40th national convention in Chicago this week. They — and their buddies who stayed home are 64.2 years old, if they date back to World War I and 39.3 years old if they date back to World War II.

Even if they were among the kid soldiers in Korea, they already are 27.9 years old. Lumped together, the veterans of all wars now show an average age of 40.3 years.

We are pointing out these statistics not to make veterans feel old but to show how comprehension of time depends on some event. If you can remember World War I, you're getting on. If you fought in it, you're what you used to be describe in your youth as an "old soldier." You're middle-aged if you were eligble for military service in World War II, a war that never quite seemed to end. And even if you were one of the youngsters in that sad business in Korea, you're thirtyish.

Behind The Race Riots In Britain

Mobs of British youth running riot through Negro districts in London and Nottingham have jarred the complacency of the well disciplined English. They do not understand what has happened to their richly deseved reputation for tolerance and restraint.

Their sociologists and mass psychologists are not puzzled, however. Negroes in the British population account for less than four-thousandths of one per cent, but the trouble is being caused by another small minority—the lawless young among the whites.

They have hit upon the Negro minority as a handy target for their contempt of British manners and morals. The chief troublemakers among them are Briton's notorious "teddy boys," counterparts of our own country's "young hoodlums." It is a safe surmise that if no Negroes had existed to victimize, some other helpless minority would have been found.

The Negroes did exist, however. Some of them have been in competition with whites for jobs. In a country famed for tolerance, some of them have been appearing in public with whites. And in congested cities, some of them have been bidding successfully against whites for scarce housing. That was all the British hoodlums needed for an excuse to start rioting.

But the excuse is never the root of the trouble. The root of the trouble is always the same, wherever it starts a social cancer. It is contempt of lawfulness by the lawless, whether it occurs in London, England, or a city in the United States.

At Your Own Peril

The uncanny accuracy of National Safety Council's prediction of 420 deaths in traffc accidents over the Labor Day weekend, exactly the total that materialized, is less impressive than the total of drownings — 114. Drownings and fatalities from miscellaneous causes reached a total of 201, almost half the traffic total.

It has been obvious for many years, despite heavy emphasis on traffic hazards, that the most dangerous thing Americans do is to risk their lives on an in the water. For every American who risked the water hazard over the Labor Day weekend, a thousand or more risked the traffic hazard. Yet, for every three traffic deaths there was one death by drowning. The explanation for the disproportion is obvious.

Americans are growing more skillful year by year in the safe use of automobiles. Relative to the increasing number of automobiles and mileage covered, the traffic toll is being reduced with incredible success. But there has been no corresponding increase in water safety It may well be the next target for a national safety campaign, similar to the campaign that is whttling down the traffic hazard.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Bob Sarnoff, head of NBC, proposes that something be done about getting a "Voice of America" to Americans. Curious airwave situation is that, while millions are being spent by the government to give the American scene to Europe and Asia, the picture is well kept from Americans.

U.N emergency sessions revealing dangers vital to every American and Senate inquiries exposing evils affecting every citizen in one way or another get sidetracked by commercial stations for Romper Room, Bugs Bunny, Bingo At Home and Life With Elizabeth.

Goldfine hearings didn't get much more airwave coverage than the "Late Lunch Movie." All important issue of what Khrushchev and Chou En-lai may do next is always topped on radio and TV by issue of Abbott & Costello's next movie.

SARNOFF SEEMS to be the first airwave boss to realize this is silly and he proposes to do something so that Americans hear at least as much about their country as Russians, Bulgarians, Arabs, Hottentots and Tunisians.

He calls for agreement by the three major stations to take turns giving adequate coverage of investigations, conventions, U.N. all-important meetings, etc., ending a queer situation in which Mr. and Mrs. America, whose lives could be vitally affected by critical world events, are denied all but skimpiest information over the air.

WHILE THERE IS plenty of squawking over the fact Communist world "jams" our "Voice of America" there has been little yelling over "jamming" of a similar voice by our own radio and TV policies. Radio and TV are not in business for health and can't cancel out cash customers.

You may blow your stack over the picture of a man plugging a bottle of beer at a moment when the fate of nations is being discussed.

You may tear your hair trying to tune into a picture of the gangster grip on American life and getting only a sales pitch for a six-month floor wax. But you'll get your first relief when Mr. Sarnoff's proposal goes over. Who knows? The time may come when picturing of mobsters, killers, thieves and all-around badies nosethumbing at the government may be as easy to see as "Five Star Matinee" or some housewife winnning a Honolulu vacation for knowing the first name of Lincoln!

AN EIGHT-FOOT PORPOISE and 300-pound shark were left on New York street corners the other day. Probably some supermarket set them down and forgot. (Those markets carry everthing these days.)

Who remembers away back when a Harriman and a Rockefeller were favorite targets for cartoonists, muckrakers and politicians? The ghosts of E. H. Harriman and John D. must be flabbergasted as they see son and grandson now the "peepul's choices." Teddy Roosevelt used to call them malefactor of great wealth and robber barons.

A United Nations committee out to reduce wordage in U.N. papers has made a report. The report takes 10,000 words.

Ninety out of every 100 auto mechanics know little about fixing a modern auto, says a dealer who has been in business 38 years. Trouble is due to a lack of apprentices, he says, admitting that dealers have to take on inexperienced men to do overhaul jobs. (So that's why when we took our car in for carburetor trouble they fixed the fanbelt!)

CURRENT MYSTERY is why Buddy Hackett, actor, bought the heavily protected palatial hideout of a noted gangster. We like his work and see no reason why he should lack confidence in his new TV series and wants a personal fortress. Art Carney, who is being succeeded by him on the Gleason show, has no violent intentions. Jackie Gleason is sure Hackett will need no high wall defenses. The previous owner was bumped off in a barber shop, but Hackett has no fears on this account. He shaves himself.

Will It Give Him A Lift?

Hoffa And Bridges Map Merger

By Victor Riesel

Two powerful men, whose followers can paralyze the United States, met secretly in Washington on the night of Monday, Aug. 25. They were strange allies. They were James R. Hoffa and Harry Bridges.

Victor Riesel

Whatever else they have in common, they are joined by the fact that Hoffa's Teamsters' Union was expelled from the AFL-CIO on charges of corruption and Brother Bridges' West Coast Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union was expelled from the CIO on charges of fly-paper adherence to the Communist line.

The long Monday night conversation was one of a long series.

Mr. Bridges plans to fly in regularly for these talks, which will intensify during this month.

At the end of the month Bridges hopes to travel to Europe and the Near East, where he will consult with Arab leaders and then on to Moscow in time for the 12th Congress of the U.S.S.R. trade unions on Oct. 27.

For such a trip to Mecca, Harry Bridges has been waiting half a turbulent pro-Communist lifetime. But he did tell Brother Hoffa that he would forego the hegira if it would interfere with the launching of a coast-to-coast organization of unions controlling America's warehousing, inland transportation, global cargo loading on both coasts — and even the crews of giant cargo and luxury liners.

ALL THIS was discussed as both men—who once vowed they'd never meet with each other — set a schedule for an East Coast conference of Waterfront, Warehouse and Teamster unions. This parley was tentatively scheduled for the first fortnight in September.

There will then be a Western conference. Then they will officially launch their Committee on Transportation Unity as an effective national outfit.

Their plans are to arrange for all their contracts with shippers, steamship and trucking lines to expire at the same moment. Should they strike then, that could well be known as the day most of the United States stood still.

Therefore the political position of Harry Bridges and the union he dominates is more than a mere conversation piece to the people of this land. Brother Bridges' home local in the ILWU is No. 6, in San Francisco.

Not too many muggy days ago this powerful Pacific Coast local dispatched angry letters to President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles, California's Sen. Kuchel, all northern California congressmen and U.N. Secretary General Hammarskjold.

This letter carried with it denunciation of the United States for landing troops in Lebanon. It's worth putting on the record. The outburst reads:

"Statement on Lebanese crisis and threat of World War:

"The sending of troops to the Middle East in discrediting the reputation of the United States as a democracy in the eyes of most of the people in the world and especially the Arab people.

"We characterize this action as 'interfering in the internal affairs' of another country.

"As this dangerous situation could well explode into a horrible atomic world war, we ask for immediate withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon.

"We believe the great powers should get together to negotiate peacefully a settlement of all issues in the Middle East, through the U.N. or otherwise and an embargo on arms shipped by the great powers into the Middle East should be declared and enforced by the United Nations."

There were no such angry words against the Soviet use of troops early in November 1956, when Soviet tank divisions plastered Hungarian freedom fighters against bloody walls in Budapest.

There were no such barbs hurled at the Sovietized North Korean and Chinese Communist troops which invaded South Korea. Yet this resolution has been circulated during this past month through the many divisions of Harry Bridges' sprawling union.

It would be interesting to report Jim Hoffa's comment on the resolution. Certainly his new partner has not kept it from him.

Behind The Latest Crisis

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This is an ABC on the background leading up to the present Formosan crisis, latest in a series, which might explode into a war or melt away by letting the Reds grab a little real estate without a fight.

After World War II the United States pumped money into China to help its wartime ally, President Chiang Kai-shek, establish a stable government, make needed reforms and win the people's allegiance.

The reforms didn't come. The money was squandered. American attempts to get Chiang and the Chinese Communists to work together failed. The Reds grew stronger, smashed Chiang's armies. His troops deserted to the Reds in bunches.

The United States washed its hands of both sides. In the fall of 1949 the Reds drove Chiang and his remaining troops off the mainland and to Formosa, 100 miles across the Formosa Strait.

But Chiang's forces grabbed and held a number of islands off the mainland. They included Quemoy, the Matsus, the Tachens and a number of tiny islets. The Reds lacked the planes and ships to pursue Chiang and finish him off.

President Truman was so disgusted with the whole situation that early in 1950 he said this country would not get mixed up in the Chinese civil war. This meant Chiang was on his own. Still, the Reds lacked the means to reach and crush him.

He remained on his own the first six months of 1950. Then the Korean War began in June. Truman sent the 7th Fleet into the Formosa Strait to "neutralize" the Red-Nationalist conflict.

The picture changed abruptly in the fall of 1950 when the Red Chinese got into the Korean War. From then till now American policy has been to defend Chiang from Red attack.

Growing stronger, the Reds began a steady peppering of the Chiang-held offshore islands. This kept up. Early in 1955 President Eisenhower decided to take a more positive position than the stated American policy up to that time.

He asked and got from Congress:

1. Approval of a resolution authorizing him to throw American forces into a fight against the Reds, if necessary, to defend Formosa, the nearby Pescadores Islands, and "related areas."

2. Approval of a mutual defense treaty with Chiang. This pledged the United States to help Chiang defend Formosa.

But Eisenhower under the resolution was free to decide what, if any, of those "related areas" he would defend or think worth defending. So what was left unanswered then, and is still unanswered, is this question:

Would Eisenhower, in case of Red attack on the offshore islands held by Chiang, use American forces to defend them and thus get the United States into a possible war with Red China? In short: Would he consider any or all of those islands necessary for the defense of Formosa?

Very quickly, early in 1955, he had to make up his mind. The Reds were banging away at the Tachen Islands, 200 miles northwest of Formosa. He decided to let the Reds have them without a fight and persuaded Chiang to agree.

Things quieted down until a few weeks ago. Again the Reds bombarded the offshore islands, particularly Quemoy, near the China mainland and directly across the strait from Formosa. The Matsus are 75 miles northwest of Formosa. But there are a number of Chiang-held islets near the mainland too.

There's only guessing now as to whether the Reds will try to take Quemoy, the Matsus or, just to win a little prestige, the tiny islets. Equally mysterious is what the Eisenhower administration will do if the Reds move at all.

So far the administration has issued what sounded like stern warnings to the Reds but in language so vague that Eisenhower is free to make up his mind at the last minute on whether he wants to get into a fight over the islands.

He'd have to fight, because of the treaty, to defend Formosa itself.

Down Through The Years

About 29 out of every 1,000 adults in the United States have received college degrees.

Integration Solution

By David Lawrence

Alaskan Bill Holds Key To School Problem

Without any general publicity the Congress of the United States this summer enacted and President Eisenhower signed a law that gives one state of the Union the right "forever" to retain "executive control" over its own public schools.

David Lawrence

What Congress can give to one state, it can some day give to other states and still stay within the Constitution as interpreted by the Supreme Court. This may eventually provide the way out of the "integration" controversy.

A little noticed paragraph in the law creating Alaska as the 49th state has just come to light. After providing that 5 per cent of the proceeds of the sale of certain public lands shall be paid to the State of Alaska "to be used for the support of the public schools within said state," the new law, approved by the President on July 7, 1958, reads as follows:

"The schools and colleges provided for in this act shall forever remain under the exclusive control of the state, or its governmental subdivisions, and no part of the proceeds arising from the sale or disposal of any lands granted herein for educational purposes shall be used for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, college or university."

THE FIRST PART of the above paragraph would seem to go contrary to the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the desegregation cases but actually it doesn't. For the Supreme Court in 1954 merely ruled that no state can pass a law that requires segregation in the schools.

It turns out now, however, that Congress may pass a law permitting a state to run its own school system without any interference by the federal government.

There are lots of things in the Constitution that are prohibited to the states — such as control of interstate commerce and the conduct of foreign relations — and on which the Congress may legislate at will.

The new law cannot be repealed or amended by Congress alone. In the recent referendum required by Congress, this particular law was approved by the people of Alaska and formally made part of the state constitution.

So, in effect, this law is a treaty between the federal government and the State of Alaska.

While perhaps of academic interest at present to the people of Alaska primarily, the new law sets a pattern for the rest of the states of the Union where until four years ago control of public schools had been recognized as a state power.

The Supreme Court in 1954 said merely that under the 14th Amendment no state may pass a law that denies "equal protection of the laws."

When the Congress, however, now vests in a state "exclusive control" of its own public schools, this is in itself the exercise of a permissive or discretionary power. For the 14th Amendment specifically delegates to Congress the right to decide what is or is not "appropriate legislation."

THE SUPREME COURT, moreover, claims power to enforce the amendment only in a negative way — by ruling that no state may pass certain kinds of laws.

The Supreme Court, for instance, has acknowledged it cannot rely on the 14th Amendment to deal with the problem of segregation where the federal government is in control of a given territory, for instance, in the District of Columbia.

Thus, when the Supreme Court in 1954 struck down the segregation law in the District of Columbia, it relied on the "due process" clause of the Fifth Amendment but admitted that this was not as strong a support as the "equal protection" clause of the 14th Amendment would have been.

This can be construed to mean that the Supreme Court cannot justifiably overrule an act of Congress which, for national defense or other reasons, gives the federal government complete control over the public school system in a particular area or when the Congress delegates the task to the states to handle under the doctrine of "exclusive control."

It is interesting to note that the new law creating the 49th state carefully provides that no part of the money from the sale of public lands should be used for the support of "any sectarian or denominational school, college or university."

THIS IS SIGNIFICANT, for, according to Supreme Court decisions as recently as April 1952, the First Amendment to the Constitution is cited repeatedly as forbidding the use of state funds in support of sectarian or denominational schools or colleges.

There was no reason, therefore, to put this particular proviso in the Alaska law except to emphasize that the only exception to "exclusive control" would be one governed by the First Amendment which prohibits the enactment of any law by Congress "respecting an establishment of religion."

Had the last Congress felt it necessary to limit the powers of the State of Alaska by inserting any other reminders of constitutional barriers, it would have done so.

This leads to the conclusion that Congress has opened the legal doors to the settlement of the "integration - segregation" issue by means of local option.

This is the very way the prohibition controversy was finally tackled by Congress and the states in 1933 after 13 years of virtual non-enforcement of the anti-liquor laws and after public sentiment in many parts of the country had been aroused against the 18th Amendment.

Transition In Vermont

By Raymond Moley

Beginning in 1856, when the Republican party first had a candidate for president, Vermont without a break has given its electoral vote to the GOP.

Prior to 1928 the Republican majority was generally three or four to one. But the beginning of a marked change in relative party strength began with the appearance of Alfred Smith as a presidential candidate.

While Harding in 1920 and Coolidge in 1924 registered the customary Republican landslides, Smith, in 1928, received half as many votes as Herbert Hoover. Since then, the Democratic vote is presidential elections has never gone back to its former insignificance.

The same change is notable in elections for governor. In the past two elections the Republican candidate has had really formidable opposition. But there has been no Democratic governor for more than a century.

Likewise, since popular voting for United States senator began in 1914, Republicans have won every time.

The Democratic upsurgence in 1928 was in considerable part due to the affection in which Alfred E. Smith was held by the quite considerable French-Catholic vote. And since then, these worthy people who are concentrated in three counties have continued their Democratic affiliation.

BUT SHIFTS in economic life are now having their part in raising some doubt about Republican assurance of victory. Agriculture has settled down to an almost strictly dairy economy.

Milk, almost all of which is shipped out of the state, dominates Vermont's agriculture.

Orchards, wheat and corn fields have fallen into neglect, and marginal farmers present an impoverished front.

Industry has entered the state. From time immemorial there have been the big granite and marble quarries. Later, small industries appeared here and there, some of them machine took plants in smaller towns. And labor unions have grown among the workers therein.

At the present time it is estimated that there are 15,000 union members in the state, while the number of farmers, predominantly diarymen, is very considerably smaller.

Other political-economic forces have appeared. There is a considerable public power sentiment in the state, which flared into a hot controversy over the issue of whether a state authority or the private utility companies should market St. Lawrence power.

The private companies won that fight and the transmission lines are being built and operated by a corporation composed of three private companies. But the echoes of the conflict linger on.

There is also a quite active REA group in the state. There are other smaller "liberal" groups, although the conservative Farm Bureau Federation counts the membership of most farmers.

IT IS NOT CLEAR that the labor union have become activated in politics as have those of many other states. Perhaps the Meany-Reuther Committee on Political education has been too busy elsewhere to put pressure into Vermont.

The voting record of Sen. George D. Aiken reflects this transition. While he is popular among the farmers, his votes have been cast for more labor-favored and public-power-sponsored issues in the Senate.

Vermont may stick to the GOP this year but its future will bear watching.

Variations On A Theme By Eaton

Some Americans are so sore about Cyrus S. Eaton's citizen-diplomacy with the Soviet Union they throb with pain when his name is mentioned.

Others are more curious than sore. It is a strange situation — this Canadian-born capitalist who persistently tries to establish rapport with the leading figures of the world's only Communist government.

But as long as it doesn't become strange enough to get Mr. Eaton into legal trouble for practicing diplomacy without a license, the rest of us can take it for its face value, which is the way any personal diplomatic effort must be appraised.

Mr. Eaton is reported to have told Premier Khrushchev in Moscow that U.S. capitalists do not want war because taxes would go up, which does no credit to his humanitarianism. The death rate would go up, too.

Premier Khrushchev is reported to have told Mr. Eaton he is convinced the American people do not want war but he is not sure about their government—and that is a more fruitful theme than Mr. Eaton's notion about taxes. This is precisely what President Eisenhower could say about the Soviet Union—that its people do not want war but he is not sure about their government.

It is what President Wilson said about the Germans under Kaiser Wilhelm and what President Roosevelt said about the Germans under Hitler. It is what was said about the Italians under Mussolini and the Japanese under Tojo. And, with variations, it is what the Kaiser, Der Fuehrer, Il Duce and the Keeper of the Rising Sun said about the Americans and their government.

But it can be recalled easily that Americans did want war against the Germans, the Italians and the Japanese. And it can be surmised just as easily that most Germans, Italians and Japanese wanted war against the United States, just as it can be surmised that Americans would want war against the Soviet Union if the Soviet Union ever did the one thing that could provoke war — attack U.S. military forces wherever they happened to be performing their duty.

That would include the duty they are doing at this moment in Taiwan Straits, a point Mr. Eaton apparently did not mention.

You're As Old As You Are

There will be Legonnaires in Chicago this week who will feel as spry as spring lambs.

They will be telling one another they have lost none of that old bounce — and it will be true, in a limited sense. They can be as bouncy as they ever were, for a few hours.

All of us are as old as we are, not as old as we feel. It's fortunate, too, because to offset the days when we feel like kittens there are days when we feel like very old, decrepit tigers with acute mange and more miseries than any one tiger should be expected to bear.

But about the Legonnaires who will be attending the 40th national convention in Chicago this week. They — and their buddies who stayed home are 64.2 years old, if they date back to World War I and 39.3 years old if they date back to World War II.

Even if they were among the kid soldiers in Korea, they already are 27.9 years old. Lumped together, the veterans of all wars now show an average age of 40.3 years.

We are pointing out these statistics not to make veterans feel old but to show how comprehension of time depends on some event. If you can remember World War I, you're getting on. If you fought in it, you're what you used to be describe in your youth as an "old soldier." You're middle-aged if you were eligble for military service in World War II, a war that never quite seemed to end. And even if you were one of the youngsters in that sad business in Korea, you're thirtyish.

Behind The Race Riots In Britain

Mobs of British youth running riot through Negro districts in London and Nottingham have jarred the complacency of the well disciplined English. They do not understand what has happened to their richly deseved reputation for tolerance and restraint.

Their sociologists and mass psychologists are not puzzled, however. Negroes in the British population account for less than four-thousandths of one per cent, but the trouble is being caused by another small minority—the lawless young among the whites.

They have hit upon the Negro minority as a handy target for their contempt of British manners and morals. The chief troublemakers among them are Briton's notorious "teddy boys," counterparts of our own country's "young hoodlums." It is a safe surmise that if no Negroes had existed to victimize, some other helpless minority would have been found.

The Negroes did exist, however. Some of them have been in competition with whites for jobs. In a country famed for tolerance, some of them have been appearing in public with whites. And in congested cities, some of them have been bidding successfully against whites for scarce housing. That was all the British hoodlums needed for an excuse to start rioting.

But the excuse is never the root of the trouble. The root of the trouble is always the same, wherever it starts a social cancer. It is contempt of lawfulness by the lawless, whether it occurs in London, England, or a city in the United States.

At Your Own Peril

The uncanny accuracy of National Safety Council's prediction of 420 deaths in traffc accidents over the Labor Day weekend, exactly the total that materialized, is less impressive than the total of drownings — 114. Drownings and fatalities from miscellaneous causes reached a total of 201, almost half the traffic total.

It has been obvious for many years, despite heavy emphasis on traffic hazards, that the most dangerous thing Americans do is to risk their lives on an in the water. For every American who risked the water hazard over the Labor Day weekend, a thousand or more risked the traffic hazard. Yet, for every three traffic deaths there was one death by drowning. The explanation for the disproportion is obvious.

Americans are growing more skillful year by year in the safe use of automobiles. Relative to the increasing number of automobiles and mileage covered, the traffic toll is being reduced with incredible success. But there has been no corresponding increase in water safety It may well be the next target for a national safety campaign, similar to the campaign that is whttling down the traffic hazard.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Bob Sarnoff, head of NBC, proposes that something be done about getting a "Voice of America" to Americans. Curious airwave situation is that, while millions are being spent by the government to give the American scene to Europe and Asia, the picture is well kept from Americans.

U.N emergency sessions revealing dangers vital to every American and Senate inquiries exposing evils affecting every citizen in one way or another get sidetracked by commercial stations for Romper Room, Bugs Bunny, Bingo At Home and Life With Elizabeth.

Goldfine hearings didn't get much more airwave coverage than the "Late Lunch Movie." All important issue of what Khrushchev and Chou En-lai may do next is always topped on radio and TV by issue of Abbott & Costello's next movie.

SARNOFF SEEMS to be the first airwave boss to realize this is silly and he proposes to do something so that Americans hear at least as much about their country as Russians, Bulgarians, Arabs, Hottentots and Tunisians.

He calls for agreement by the three major stations to take turns giving adequate coverage of investigations, conventions, U.N. all-important meetings, etc., ending a queer situation in which Mr. and Mrs. America, whose lives could be vitally affected by critical world events, are denied all but skimpiest information over the air.

WHILE THERE IS plenty of squawking over the fact Communist world "jams" our "Voice of America" there has been little yelling over "jamming" of a similar voice by our own radio and TV policies. Radio and TV are not in business for health and can't cancel out cash customers.

You may blow your stack over the picture of a man plugging a bottle of beer at a moment when the fate of nations is being discussed.

You may tear your hair trying to tune into a picture of the gangster grip on American life and getting only a sales pitch for a six-month floor wax. But you'll get your first relief when Mr. Sarnoff's proposal goes over. Who knows? The time may come when picturing of mobsters, killers, thieves and all-around badies nosethumbing at the government may be as easy to see as "Five Star Matinee" or some housewife winnning a Honolulu vacation for knowing the first name of Lincoln!

AN EIGHT-FOOT PORPOISE and 300-pound shark were left on New York street corners the other day. Probably some supermarket set them down and forgot. (Those markets carry everthing these days.)

Who remembers away back when a Harriman and a Rockefeller were favorite targets for cartoonists, muckrakers and politicians? The ghosts of E. H. Harriman and John D. must be flabbergasted as they see son and grandson now the "peepul's choices." Teddy Roosevelt used to call them malefactor of great wealth and robber barons.

A United Nations committee out to reduce wordage in U.N. papers has made a report. The report takes 10,000 words.

Ninety out of every 100 auto mechanics know little about fixing a modern auto, says a dealer who has been in business 38 years. Trouble is due to a lack of apprentices, he says, admitting that dealers have to take on inexperienced men to do overhaul jobs. (So that's why when we took our car in for carburetor trouble they fixed the fanbelt!)

CURRENT MYSTERY is why Buddy Hackett, actor, bought the heavily protected palatial hideout of a noted gangster. We like his work and see no reason why he should lack confidence in his new TV series and wants a personal fortress. Art Carney, who is being succeeded by him on the Gleason show, has no violent intentions. Jackie Gleason is sure Hackett will need no high wall defenses. The previous owner was bumped off in a barber shop, but Hackett has no fears on this account. He shaves himself.

Will It Give Him A Lift?

Hoffa And Bridges Map Merger

By Victor Riesel

Two powerful men, whose followers can paralyze the United States, met secretly in Washington on the night of Monday, Aug. 25. They were strange allies. They were James R. Hoffa and Harry Bridges.

Victor Riesel

Whatever else they have in common, they are joined by the fact that Hoffa's Teamsters' Union was expelled from the AFL-CIO on charges of corruption and Brother Bridges' West Coast Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union was expelled from the CIO on charges of fly-paper adherence to the Communist line.

The long Monday night conversation was one of a long series.

Mr. Bridges plans to fly in regularly for these talks, which will intensify during this month.

At the end of the month Bridges hopes to travel to Europe and the Near East, where he will consult with Arab leaders and then on to Moscow in time for the 12th Congress of the U.S.S.R. trade unions on Oct. 27.

For such a trip to Mecca, Harry Bridges has been waiting half a turbulent pro-Communist lifetime. But he did tell Brother Hoffa that he would forego the hegira if it would interfere with the launching of a coast-to-coast organization of unions controlling America's warehousing, inland transportation, global cargo loading on both coasts — and even the crews of giant cargo and luxury liners.

ALL THIS was discussed as both men—who once vowed they'd never meet with each other — set a schedule for an East Coast conference of Waterfront, Warehouse and Teamster unions. This parley was tentatively scheduled for the first fortnight in September.

There will then be a Western conference. Then they will officially launch their Committee on Transportation Unity as an effective national outfit.

Their plans are to arrange for all their contracts with shippers, steamship and trucking lines to expire at the same moment. Should they strike then, that could well be known as the day most of the United States stood still.

Therefore the political position of Harry Bridges and the union he dominates is more than a mere conversation piece to the people of this land. Brother Bridges' home local in the ILWU is No. 6, in San Francisco.

Not too many muggy days ago this powerful Pacific Coast local dispatched angry letters to President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles, California's Sen. Kuchel, all northern California congressmen and U.N. Secretary General Hammarskjold.

This letter carried with it denunciation of the United States for landing troops in Lebanon. It's worth putting on the record. The outburst reads:

"Statement on Lebanese crisis and threat of World War:

"The sending of troops to the Middle East in discrediting the reputation of the United States as a democracy in the eyes of most of the people in the world and especially the Arab people.

"We characterize this action as 'interfering in the internal affairs' of another country.

"As this dangerous situation could well explode into a horrible atomic world war, we ask for immediate withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon.

"We believe the great powers should get together to negotiate peacefully a settlement of all issues in the Middle East, through the U.N. or otherwise and an embargo on arms shipped by the great powers into the Middle East should be declared and enforced by the United Nations."

There were no such angry words against the Soviet use of troops early in November 1956, when Soviet tank divisions plastered Hungarian freedom fighters against bloody walls in Budapest.

There were no such barbs hurled at the Sovietized North Korean and Chinese Communist troops which invaded South Korea. Yet this resolution has been circulated during this past month through the many divisions of Harry Bridges' sprawling union.

It would be interesting to report Jim Hoffa's comment on the resolution. Certainly his new partner has not kept it from him.

Behind The Latest Crisis

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This is an ABC on the background leading up to the present Formosan crisis, latest in a series, which might explode into a war or melt away by letting the Reds grab a little real estate without a fight.

After World War II the United States pumped money into China to help its wartime ally, President Chiang Kai-shek, establish a stable government, make needed reforms and win the people's allegiance.

The reforms didn't come. The money was squandered. American attempts to get Chiang and the Chinese Communists to work together failed. The Reds grew stronger, smashed Chiang's armies. His troops deserted to the Reds in bunches.

The United States washed its hands of both sides. In the fall of 1949 the Reds drove Chiang and his remaining troops off the mainland and to Formosa, 100 miles across the Formosa Strait.

But Chiang's forces grabbed and held a number of islands off the mainland. They included Quemoy, the Matsus, the Tachens and a number of tiny islets. The Reds lacked the planes and ships to pursue Chiang and finish him off.

President Truman was so disgusted with the whole situation that early in 1950 he said this country would not get mixed up in the Chinese civil war. This meant Chiang was on his own. Still, the Reds lacked the means to reach and crush him.

He remained on his own the first six months of 1950. Then the Korean War began in June. Truman sent the 7th Fleet into the Formosa Strait to "neutralize" the Red-Nationalist conflict.

The picture changed abruptly in the fall of 1950 when the Red Chinese got into the Korean War. From then till now American policy has been to defend Chiang from Red attack.

Growing stronger, the Reds began a steady peppering of the Chiang-held offshore islands. This kept up. Early in 1955 President Eisenhower decided to take a more positive position than the stated American policy up to that time.

He asked and got from Congress:

1. Approval of a resolution authorizing him to throw American forces into a fight against the Reds, if necessary, to defend Formosa, the nearby Pescadores Islands, and "related areas."

2. Approval of a mutual defense treaty with Chiang. This pledged the United States to help Chiang defend Formosa.

But Eisenhower under the resolution was free to decide what, if any, of those "related areas" he would defend or think worth defending. So what was left unanswered then, and is still unanswered, is this question:

Would Eisenhower, in case of Red attack on the offshore islands held by Chiang, use American forces to defend them and thus get the United States into a possible war with Red China? In short: Would he consider any or all of those islands necessary for the defense of Formosa?

Very quickly, early in 1955, he had to make up his mind. The Reds were banging away at the Tachen Islands, 200 miles northwest of Formosa. He decided to let the Reds have them without a fight and persuaded Chiang to agree.

Things quieted down until a few weeks ago. Again the Reds bombarded the offshore islands, particularly Quemoy, near the China mainland and directly across the strait from Formosa. The Matsus are 75 miles northwest of Formosa. But there are a number of Chiang-held islets near the mainland too.

There's only guessing now as to whether the Reds will try to take Quemoy, the Matsus or, just to win a little prestige, the tiny islets. Equally mysterious is what the Eisenhower administration will do if the Reds move at all.

So far the administration has issued what sounded like stern warnings to the Reds but in language so vague that Eisenhower is free to make up his mind at the last minute on whether he wants to get into a fight over the islands.

He'd have to fight, because of the treaty, to defend Formosa itself.

Integration Solution

By David Lawrence

Alaskan Bill Holds Key To School Problem

Without any general publicity the Congress of the United States this summer enacted and President Eisenhower signed a law that gives one state of the Union the right "forever" to retain "executive control" over its own public schools.

David Lawrence

What Congress can give to one state, it can some day give to other states and still stay within the Constitution as interpreted by the Supreme Court. This may eventually provide the way out of the "integration" controversy.

A little noticed paragraph in the law creating Alaska as the 49th state has just come to light. After providing that 5 per cent of the proceeds of the sale of certain public lands shall be paid to the State of Alaska "to be used for the support of the public schools within said state," the new law, approved by the President on July 7, 1958, reads as follows:

"The schools and colleges provided for in this act shall forever remain under the exclusive control of the state, or its governmental subdivisions, and no part of the proceeds arising from the sale or disposal of any lands granted herein for educational purposes shall be used for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, college or university."

THE FIRST PART of the above paragraph would seem to go contrary to the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the desegregation cases but actually it doesn't. For the Supreme Court in 1954 merely ruled that no state can pass a law that requires segregation in the schools.

It turns out now, however, that Congress may pass a law permitting a state to run its own school system without any interference by the federal government.

There are lots of things in the Constitution that are prohibited to the states — such as control of interstate commerce and the conduct of foreign relations — and on which the Congress may legislate at will.

The new law cannot be repealed or amended by Congress alone. In the recent referendum required by Congress, this particular law was approved by the people of Alaska and formally made part of the state constitution.

So, in effect, this law is a treaty between the federal government and the State of Alaska.

While perhaps of academic interest at present to the people of Alaska primarily, the new law sets a pattern for the rest of the states of the Union where until four years ago control of public schools had been recognized as a state power. The Supreme Court in 1954 said merely that under the 14th Amendment no state may pass a law that denies "equal protection of the laws."

When the Congress, however, now vests in a state "exclusive control" of its own public schools, this is in itself the exercise of a permissive or discretionary power. For the 14th Amendment specifically delegates to Congress the right to decide what is or is not "appropriate legislation."

THE SUPREME COURT, moreover, claims power to enforce the amendment only in a negative way — by ruling that no state may pass certain kinds of laws.

The Supreme Court, for instance, has acknowledged it cannot rely on the 14th Amendment to deal with the problem of segregation where the federal government is in control of a given territory, for instance, in the District of Columbia.

Thus, when the Supreme Court in 1954 struck down the segregation law in the District of Columbia, it relied on the "due process" clause of the Fifth Amendment but admitted that this was not as strong a support as the "equal protection" clause of the 14th Amendment would have been.

This can be construed to mean that the Supreme Court cannot justifiably overrule an act of Congress which, for national defense or other reasons, gives the federal government complete control over the public school system in a particular area or when the Congress delegates the task to the states to handle under the doctrine of "exclusive control."

It is interesting to note that the new law creating the 49th state carefully provides that no part of the money from the sale of public lands should be used for the support of "any sectarian or denominational school, college or university."

THIS IS SIGNIFICANT, for, according to Supreme Court decisions as recently as April 1952, the First Amendment to the Constitution is cited repeatedly as forbidding the use of state funds in support of sectarian or denominational schools or colleges.

There was no reason, therefore, to put this particular proviso in the Alaska law except to emphasize that the only exception to "exclusive control" would be one governed by the First Amendment which prohibits the enactment of any law by Congress "respecting an establishment of religion."

Had the last Congress felt it necessary to limit the powers of the State of Alaska by inserting any other reminders of constitutional barriers, it would have done so.

This leads to the conclusion that Congress has opened the legal doors to the settlement of the "integration - segregation" issue by means of local option.

This is the very way the prohibition controversy was finally tackled by Congress and the states in 1933 after 13 years of virtual non-enforcement of the anti-liquor laws and after public sentiment in many parts of the country had been aroused against the 18th Amendment.

Transition In Vermont

By Raymond Moley

Beginning in 1856, when the Republican party first had a candidate for president, Vermont without a break has given its electoral vote to the GOP.

Prior to 1928 the Republican majority was generally three or four to one. But the beginning of a marked change in relative party strength began with the appearance of Alfred Smith as a presidential candidate.

While Harding in 1920 and Coolidge in 1924 registered the customary Republican landslides, Smith, in 1928, received half as many votes as Herbert Hoover. Since then, the Democratic vote is presidential elections has never gone back to its former insignificance.

The same change is notable in elections for governor. In the past two elections the Republican candidate has had really formidable opposition. But there has been no Democratic governor for more than a century.

Likewise, since popular voting for United States senator began in 1914, Republicans have won every time.

The Democratic upsurgence in 1928 was in considerable part due to the affection in which Alfred E. Smith was held by the quite considerable French-Catholic vote. And since then, these worthy people who are concentrated in three counties have continued their Democratic affiliation.

BUT SHIFTS in economic life are now having their part in raising some doubt about Republican assurance of victory. Agriculture has settled down to an almost strictly dairy economy.

Milk, almost all of which is shipped out of the state, dominates Vermont's agriculture.

Orchards, wheat and corn fields have fallen into neglect, and marginal farmers present an impoverished front.

Industry has entered the state. From time immemorial there have been the big granite and marble quarries. Later, small industries appeared here and there, some of them machine took plants in smaller towns. And labor unions have grown among the workers therein.

At the present time it is estimated that there are 15,000 union members in the state, while the number of farmers, predominantly diarymen, is very considerably smaller.

Other political-economic forces have appeared. There is a considerable public power sentiment in the state, which flared into a hot controversy over the issue of whether a state authority or the private utility companies should market St. Lawrence power.

The private companies won that fight and the transmission lines are being built and operated by a corporation composed of three private companies. But the echoes of the conflict linger on.

There is also a quite active REA group in the state. There are other smaller "liberal" groups, although the conservative Farm Bureau Federation counts the membership of most farmers.

IT IS NOT CLEAR that the labor union have become activated in politics as have those of many other states. Perhaps the Meany-Reuther Committee on Political education has been too busy elsewhere to put pressure into Vermont.

The voting record of Sen. George D. Aiken reflects this transition. While he is popular among the farmers, his votes have been cast for more labor-favored and public-power-sponsored issues in the Senate.

Vermont may stick to the GOP this year but its future will bear watching.

Bakery Local Troubles In Courts Again

CINCINNATI (AP)— The troubles of the Cincinnati local of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union are back in the courts again.

The union was ousted by the AFL-CIO on charge of corrupt leadership centering around President James Cross.

Since the ouster its local here and a rival local of the AFL-CIO chartered American Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union have been engaged in a jurisdictional dispute and court squabbles here.

Wednesday Donald T. Finck, named by Cross as trustee of his union's local, filed suit in Common Pleas Court against two former officials of the local asking for an accounting of financial affairs during their terms in office.

The suit, filed against former local president Elmer Hohnecker and former secretary - treasurer Victor Marhoffer, charged seven local members paid their full $50 initiation fee while Hohnecker and Marhoffer were in office but that they were credited with lesser amounts in the union's books.

The complaint also expressed the belief "there were numerous other instances of improper handling of funds of Local 213."

Filing of the suit came only a week before employes of 12 Cincinnati bakeries will vote in a National Labor Relations Board election on which union will be their collective bargaining agent.

County Role In Civil Defense Evacuation Detailed For Club

Edward Fogo, chief of the defense manpower department of the Ohio Employment Service, told the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at Meade's Restaurant Columbiana County could receive 250,000 evacuees from the Youngstown and Canton "target" areas in event of enemy attack.

Fogo, former Wellsville resident, said there are 72 target areas in the nation and 9 of them in Ohio—Akron, Cleveland, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus, Steubenville, Youngstown, Canton and Toledo.

Wheeling is one of West Virginia's target areas and makes it virtually the 10th area for Ohio, he said.

Eighty-five out of 88 counties in Ohio are earmarked for evacuation in case of an air attack.

In the simulated air attack May 6, there was only the period of 2 hours and 38 minutes to evacuate Youngstown and Columbus. There were 110,000 "casualties" for Youngstown and 70,000 for Columbus.

"This time will have to be cut to 30 minutes," he said, "because of faster planes."

Regardless of submarine radar patrol and other defenses against air attack, 10 per cent of the attacking planes still would get through, he warned.

He said Ohio ranks "No. 1" in the nation for its planning system for the evacuation of persons. His office ties in with the Civil Defense and the Red Cross in case of an attack.

Walter Wolfe, a new Wellsville school teacher, was a guest. Twenty members attended.

Next meeting will be Tuesday night at Meade's.

City, Council Plan 'Congratulations' For Drill Champs

Council and the city administration agreed Wednesday night to prepare a joint letter of congratulation for the national championship drill team of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66.

After Councilman H. A. Tullis suggested a letter of commendation from Council, Mayor Fred P. Lawrence said he and Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti will join in the congratulations. The joint letter will be prepared by the mayor for signatures of Lawrence, Maggianetti and all councilmen.

"The administration agrees with you wholeheartedly," the mayor said in referring to Tullis' remarks about a letter of commendation. "It is a wonderful thing. These men obviously have worked exceedingly hard over a period of years to achieve this honor. It has attracted much favorable attention to East Liverpool."

Tullis also suggested that some civic group might wish to call the team's feat to travelers' attention by erecting signs on the four main highway entrances to the city.

They might read: "East Liverpool, Home of National Championship Drill Team," he suggested.

Lawrenceville Legion To Aid Needy Family

A contribution of $50 for a needy Lawrenceville area family was authorized by the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 at a meeting Tuesday night at the post home.

CINCINNATI (AP)— The troubles of the Cincinnati local of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union are back in the courts again.

The union was ousted by the AFL-CIO on charge of corrupt leadership centering around President James Cross.

Since the ouster its local here and a rival local of the AFL-CIO chartered American Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union have been engaged in a jurisdictional dispute and court squabbles here.

Wednesday Donald T. Finck, named by Cross as trustee of his union's local, filed suit in Common Pleas Court against two former officials of the local asking for an accounting of financial affairs during their terms in office.

The suit, filed against former local president Elmer Hohnecker and former secretary - treasurer Victor Marhoffer, charged seven local members paid their full $50 initiation fee while Hohnecker and Marhoffer were in office but that they were credited with lesser amounts in the union's books.

The complaint also expressed the belief "there were numerous other instances of improper handling of funds of Local 213."

Filing of the suit came only a week before employes of 12 Cincinnati bakeries will vote in a National Labor Relations Board election on which union will be their collective bargaining agent.

County Role In Civil Defense Evacuation Detailed For Club

Edward Fogo, chief of the defense manpower department of the Ohio Employment Service, told the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at Meade's Restaurant Columbiana County could receive 250,000 evacuees from the Youngstown and Canton "target" areas in event of enemy attack.

Fogo, former Wellsville resident, said there are 72 target areas in the nation and 9 of them in Ohio—Akron, Cleveland, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus, Steubenville, Youngstown, Canton and Toledo.

Wheeling is one of West Virginia's target areas and makes it virtually the 10th area for Ohio, he said.

Eighty-five out of 88 counties in Ohio are earmarked for evacuation in case of an air attack.

In the simulated air attack May 6, there was only the period of 2 hours and 38 minutes to evacuate Youngstown and Columbus. There were 110,000 "casualties" for Youngstown and 70,000 for Columbus.

"This time will have to be cut to 30 minutes," he said, "because of faster planes."

Regardless of submarine radar patrol and other defenses against air attack, 10 per cent of the attacking planes still would get through, he warned.

He said Ohio ranks "No. 1" in the nation for its planning system for the evacuation of persons. His office ties in with the Civil Defense and the Red Cross in case of an attack.

Walter Wolfe, a new Wellsville school teacher, was a guest. Twenty members attended.

Next meeting will be Tuesday night at Meade's.

City, Council Plan 'Congratulations' For Drill Champs

Council and the city administration agreed Wednesday night to prepare a joint letter of congratulation for the national championship drill team of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66.

After Councilman H. A. Tullis suggested a letter of commendation from Council, Mayor Fred P. Lawrence said he and Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti will join in the congratulations. The joint letter will be prepared by the mayor for signatures of Lawrence, Maggianetti and all councilmen.

"The administration agrees with you wholeheartedly," the mayor said in referring to Tullis' remarks about a letter of commendation. "It is a wonderful thing. These men obviously have worked exceedingly hard over a period of years to achieve this honor. It has attracted much favorable attention to East Liverpool."

Tullis also suggested that some civic group might wish to call the team's feat to travelers' attention by erecting signs on the four main highway entrances to the city.

They might read: "East Liverpool, Home of National Championship Drill Team," he suggested.

Lawrenceville Legion To Aid Needy Family

A contribution of $50 for a needy Lawrenceville area family was authorized by the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 at a meeting Tuesday night at the post home.

Charles Wright and William Schladen were cited for outstanding work in directing the youth baseball team. A quarterly donation was authorized for the volunteer fire department.

Lunch was served by Ross Conley and Frank Haught.

The next meeting will be Sept. 15.

East Palestine Starts New Parking Fine Plan

EAST PALESTINE--Use of a 25-cent courtesy parking fine system went into operation today, following the installation of four special collection receptacles along Market St.

The $1 fine remains for those motorists who do not pay within an hour.

Council also enacted legislation providing for one - way traffic — southbound only — in a block-long stretch of Riley Ave. from Eugene Pl. to Bradshaw Ave. The change will become effective Oct. 3, as the legislation did not contain an emergency clause and there will be a 30-day wait before it can be enforced. With an emergency clause it would have gone into effect immediately.

Residents of the area requested the change several months ago. At present, the surface of the unpaved street is cut up by autos attempting to climb the grade from Bradshaw Ave. in wet or slippery weather, they said. With the change, traffic will be able to move only downgrade in the short stretch.

A request received last night for establishment of one-way traffic in Grove Alley between E. 6th St. and Bradshaw Ave. was referred to the street committee. The request was made in a petition with about 14 signers.

The petitioners said there is a traffic hazard in the alley, which parallels Walnut St. just off E. 6th St. "Cars dash into either end to turn" and large trucks sometimes block traffic when they halt in the alley to unload at the rear of the Star Furniture Co. store, which fronts on Walnut, the petition said.

The same petition asked the city to erect a new streetlight at Grove Alley and E. 6th St. The petition said the dark spot is used as a "congregating place" for drunks after taverns close.

City And Irondale Men Held For Grand Jury

Hubert Cline, 633 Jefferson St., and Thurman Allgood of Irondale were bound over to the Jefferson County Grand Jury Wednesday at Municipal Court at Steubenville on a charge of breaking and entering, stemming from the theft of mine equipment.

Cline and Allgood, both 26, pleaded innocent and waived preliminary hearing. They are in Jefferson County Jail today on $3,000 bond each.

Both are charged with the theft of some $5,000 in equipment from a Brush Creek mine owned by Anthony Abrutz of Irondale. Cline was taken into custody at his home here Tuesday, while Jefferson County sheriff's deputies had been holding Allgood since Friday — the day after the theft.

School Guard Resigns; City Seeks Another

One of the city's new women school crossing guards resigned after her first day's work Wednesday and Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti started a search for a replacement today.

Mrs. Evelyn Miller, 2008 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., quit her post as guard at the East Junior High School. She explained to city officials that the job of watching traffic on the busy street and guarding the children made her "nervous."

The director said he hopes to find a replacement today.

Drive Carefully On Oiled Streets, Drivers Warned

Motorists should drive carefully on freshly - oiled streets, because the surface is slippery for a day or two until the heavy liquid soaks into the earth, Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti warned today.

The director issued the warning because he received two telephoned reports Wednesday that cars skidded off freshly - oiled streets into ditches.

The mishaps occurred on a street that had been oiled for the second time this summer, the director explained. As part of the street had a hard surface from the combination of oil and asphalt, the newly - applied oil made it slippery, he said.

The current oiling campaign will cover 51 streets, many of them for the second time, he explained. About 30 have been oiled to date. The equipment worked yesterday in East End and moved today onto Maine Blvd. and the Cain Heights area.

Fatal Accident Brings Jail, Loss Of License

LISBON—Guy Lynn Danser, 27, of Irondale was sentenced to 60 days in the Columbiana County Jail Wednesday by Judge Joel H. Sharp for second degree manslaughter.

Danser was indicted in April in the traffic death of Mrs. Bessie Adney of Wellsville Feb. 28.

He had pleaded guilty and requested probation. Sharp rejected the request, pointing out Danser has been arrested in Wellsville July 2 for reckless operation and again in Wellsville Aug. 15 for not halting for a traffic signal.

Sharp sentenced Danser to six months, but suspended all but 60 days of the term. He also suspended Danser's driver's license for a year and ordered him to pay court costs.

Council also enacted legislation providing for one - way traffic — southbound only — in a block-long stretch of Riley Ave. from Eugene Pl. to Bradshaw Ave. The change will become effective Oct. 3, as the legislation did not contain an emergency clause and there will be a 30-day wait before it can be enforced. With an emergency clause it would have gone into effect immediately.

Residents of the area requested the change several months ago. At present, the surface of the unpaved street is cut up by autos attempting to climb the grade from Bradshaw Ave. in wet or slippery weather, they said. With the change, traffic will be able to move only downgrade in the short stretch.

A request received last night for establishment of one-way traffic in Grove Alley between E. 6th St. and Bradshaw Ave. was referred to the street committee. The request was made in a petition with about 14 signers.

The petitioners said there is a traffic hazard in the alley, which parallels Walnut St. just off E. 6th St. "Cars dash into either end to turn" and large trucks sometimes block traffic when they halt in the alley to unload at the rear of the Star Furniture Co. store, which fronts on Walnut, the petition said.

The same petition asked the city to erect a new streetlight at Grove Alley and E. 6th St. The petition said the dark spot is used as a "congregating place" for drunks after taverns close.

City And Irondale Men Held For Grand Jury

Hubert Cline, 633 Jefferson St., and Thurman Allgood of Irondale were bound over to the Jefferson County Grand Jury Wednesday at Municipal Court at Steubenville on a charge of breaking and entering, stemming from the theft of mine equipment.

Cline and Allgood, both 26, pleaded innocent and waived preliminary hearing. They are in Jefferson County Jail today on $3,000 bond each.

Both are charged with the theft of some $5,000 in equipment from a Brush Creek mine owned by Anthony Abrutz of Irondale. Cline was taken into custody at his home here Tuesday, while Jefferson County sheriff's deputies had been holding Allgood since Friday — the day after the theft.

School Guard Resigns; City Seeks Another

One of the city's new women school crossing guards resigned after her first day's work Wednesday and Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti started a search for a replacement today.

Mrs. Evelyn Miller, 2008 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., quit her post as guard at the East Junior High School. She explained to city officials that the job of watching traffic on the busy street and guarding the children made her "nervous."

The director said he hopes to find a replacement today.

Drive Carefully On Oiled Streets, Drivers Warned

Motorists should drive carefully on freshly - oiled streets, because the surface is slippery for a day or two until the heavy liquid soaks into the earth, Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti warned today.

The director issued the warning because he received two telephoned reports Wednesday that cars skidded off freshly - oiled streets into ditches.

The mishaps occurred on a street that had been oiled for the second time this summer, the director explained. As part of the street had a hard surface from the combination of oil and asphalt, the newly - applied oil made it slippery, he said.

The current oiling campaign will cover 51 streets, many of them for the second time, he explained. About 30 have been oiled to date. The equipment worked yesterday in East End and moved today onto Maine Blvd. and the Cain Heights area.

Fatal Accident Brings Jail, Loss Of License

LISBON—Guy Lynn Danser, 27, of Irondale was sentenced to 60 days in the Columbiana County Jail Wednesday by Judge Joel H. Sharp for second degree manslaughter.

Danser was indicted in April in the traffic death of Mrs. Bessie Adney of Wellsville Feb. 28.

He had pleaded guilty and requested probation. Sharp rejected the request, pointing out Danser has been arrested in Wellsville July 2 for reckless operation and again in Wellsville Aug. 15 for not halting for a traffic signal.

Sharp sentenced Danser to six months, but suspended all but 60 days of the term. He also suspended Danser's driver's license for a year and ordered him to pay court costs.

Rainfall For 8 Months Equal To Usual Year Precipitation

Columbiana County has received almost all the rainfall in the past eight months it would ordinarily get in a year, Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observer, reported in his August summary.

Rainfall last month totaled 5.11 inches — compared to the 3.37-inch normal for August in Copeland's 64-year-old records — boosting the total rainfall so far this year to 35.62 inches. The average rainfall for a year is 37 inches.

The average rainfall for the first eight months of the year is 26.51 inches.

There was more sunshine last month than in July, but 14 rainy days delayed harvests and caused "costly damage" to farm crops, Copeland said.

The larger part of the wheat harvested sprouted, and oats blew over, making the crop difficult to combine. The second crop of hay was in advanced stage to cut and was of poor quality and had some mold from the wet conditions, he said.

There were 11 partly cloudy days, 16 clear days and 4 cloudy days.

The average temperature for the month was 67 degrees, compared to the normal 68.9. The temperatures ranged from 88 degrees Aug. 13 to 39 degrees Aug. 26. Sunshine totaled 68 per cent compared to the average of 60 per cent.

To get corn and other crops ready for fall and the frosts, warmer temperatures and less rain are needed for September, Copeland concluded.

Mixed-Up Season Seen In Farming

Oliver Johnson, Hancock County agricultural agent, said it's a mixed-up season for farming, citing these:

It's September, but framers still are doing July and August work. The second cutting of alfalfa is just being harvested. Normally that's done in July or August. Straw that was left from the combines is being baled. One orchardman had started his apple picking. Other farmers are plowing ground for barley and wheat and preparing to spread lime.

Fiend corn has made a tremendous growth. It's not unusual to see stalks 12 to 15 feet high. There is no bragging about this anymore — farmers want stalks about 6 feet tall with ears not over waist high. Corn isn't grown for fodder anymore. Corn needs warm dry weather to mature. Frost may come soon and kill the corn plants.

Hal Haven peaches arrived last week. They are yellow, freestone, sweet, with complete absence of bitterness.

A. H. Hillyard & Sons of Chester sent a load of cauliflower to market last Thursday. It's early this year. Cauliflower usually comes in season about frost time.

Fourth Annual Grid Preview Awaited Here Friday Night

10 Of District Elevens Will Join In Action

Between 3,000 and 5,000 fans are expected to be on hand Friday night at Patterson Field when the fourth annual preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club offers a fast - moving preliminary to the football season which lies ahead.

Ten district teams will battle in abbreviated contests during a full night of gridiron action which will include pairings of old rivals who will not meet in regular season play.

A flag - raising ceremony is scheduled for 6:30, with the kick-off promptly at 7 p. m.

Leetonia's Polar Bears and United High School will lead off in the first game, with Salineville meeting Beaver Local in the second at 7:30.

Leetonia, guided by Coach Pat Mancusco, will face stiff competition in United, which has a full team returning from last year. A full season is in prospect for Coach Ray Russell's Golden Eagles.

A rugged battle also is expected in the Beaver Local - Salineville game, both teams being loaded with veterans. Coach Jack O'Rourke will make his debut with the Beavers, who also have a full squad returning from 1957. Salineville will be led by a topflight quarterback in Larry Kessler, a passing artist. Richard Jones again returns as head coach.

The third game at 8 will pit Toronto against Columbiana, while old rivals will meet in the fourth game at 8:45 when Salem opposes Lisbon.

East Liverpool High School's marching band will perform from 8:30 to 8:45 before the fourth game between Coach Earl Bruce's Salem Quakers and Bud Bucher's Lisbon Blue Devils.

Kickoff time for the finale is 9:15, when Coach Lou Venditti will send his East Liverpool Potters against Wellsville guided for the first time by Coach Ken Woods, formerly of Fairfield-Waterford.

Nonpareil members said that advance ticket sales indicate a record - breaking crowd.

Beaver Local fans gobbled up their first allotment of 220 reserved seat tickets and were sent 150 more yesterday, Ed Hester, general chairman of the preview, said.

Hester announced that plenty of reserved seat tickets will be on sale at the gate at game time at $1 each. Students who bought advanced tickets at their respective schools paid 35 cents, but 50 cents will be charged at the gate on game night.

Tickets may be purchased at Dick Brian's, Heimies and Reark's and the Louis - James Clothing store in East End.

Newell was previously scheduled to meet Leetonia in the first game, but had to drop out because of a regular season game the following night at Weirton Madonna.

Ticket chairman is Dick Forzano. Laird Christan heads the concession stand committee.

Dove Population Seen Growing In Hancock

The dove population is increasing, according to Oliver Johnson, Hancock County agricultural agent, who said he saw a flock of over 50 recently.

Now considered a game bird in West Virginia, they were classified as a song bird and protected for many years.

Some persons know the bird as the rain crow, taking its mournful call as a sign of rain.

Kessler Should Be Triple-Threat At Quarterback For Indians

By CHUCK CRONIN

Injuries have plagued Salineville High School's football team as Dick Jones begins his third year as head coach of the Indians with nine returning lettermen among a squad of nearly 40.

While the injury problem figures to be troublesome during the regular season which opens for Salineville Sept. 13 with Darlington, the concern now is fielding a strong starting eleven for the football preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field.

The Indians will meet dangerous Beaver Local in the second game at 7:30 and may be forced to go without the services of triple-threat quarterback Larry Kessler.

A three - year letterman who has played quarterback at Salineville since a freshman, he will be feared by opponents this year in both running and passing. He also handles the punting handily.

Jones, who feels his star signal-caller is one of the district's top-flight performers, may have Kessler sit out Friday's game because of a painful back injury which developed this week. Kessler also has a sprained left leg, but it will not hamper his kicking too much if he gets the starting call, Jones indicated.

Kessler, 180-pound senior, will probably team with Rich Dunlap, Dick Noles and Ron Dunlevy in the backfield during the regular season. The backfield will have plenty of speed and enough of a scoring punch to better last year's season record of three wins and three losses.

Dunlap is expected to handle much of the ball - carrying duties and should be "outstanding" this year among the smaller circles in Columbiana County, Jones said. However, he is suffering with leg trouble.

"We'll go with a multiple offense with an unbalanced line this year, but may shift into a single-wing attack at times to give Kessler more time to throw passes" Jones pointed out.

Kerr and Beadnell have developed into fair pass catchers and probably will answer the starting whistle, Jones said, while Malone and Floyd Hays probably will go at the tackle slots.

Jones lost a prospective tackles in Don Hillyer, who suffered a broken shoulder during a scrimmage game last week with Chester. Hillyer, only a sophomore, weighs 170 and would have added some heft to the Indians' line.

Tom Raffle and Allen Richardson, both lightweights, probably will be the first-string guards, while Chuck Tepsic, 160-pound junior will get the nod at center.

While depth looms as a major problem, several promising freshmen and sophomores have showed they can be depended on to fill in for any of the starters.

Jones singled out Jack Baker, 180-pound tackle, a freshman; Bud Leatherberry, 160-pound freshman halfback, and Ron Jones, an end, as among those who should see a lot of action this autumn.

Jones, 160-pound freshman, will be used mainly with the defensive unit.

Losses from graduation included Howard Harker, Bill Mundy, Earl Manning, Nelson Carmen, Henry Carmen, Joe Polen, Allen Cunningham and Ernie Beadnell. Harker, a middle guard, was a mainstay with last year's club and will be especially missed, Jones said.

Dave Fox, a graduate of Delroy High School and Kent State University, is assisting in football at Salineville this year.

While nearly all district schools play only night games, the Indians' only time under the lights will be in the preview Friday night, as the regular season schedule calls for afternoon games. All but two are Saturday games.

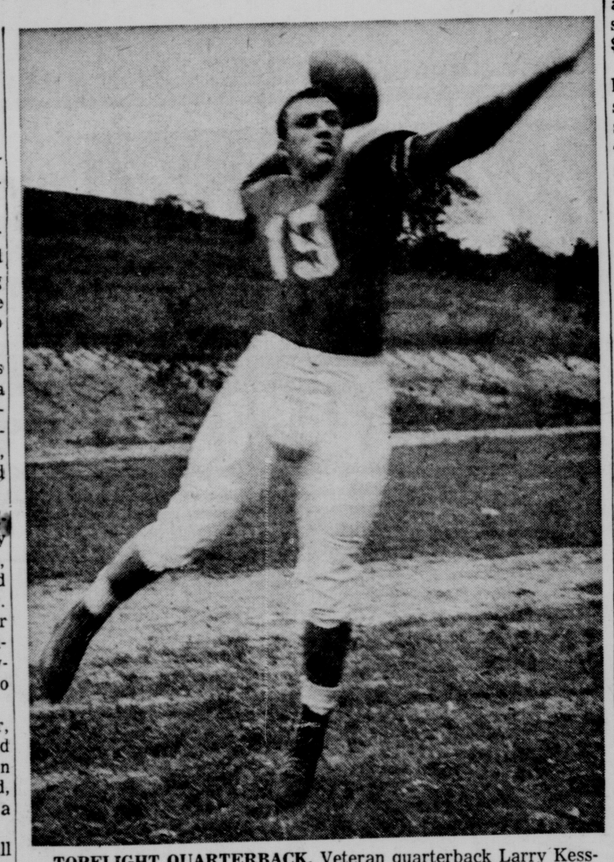
Trombold Keeps Title

EAST PALESTINE — Robert Trombold retained his city tennis title Tuesday night in a singles match at City Park, beating Charles Reesh 7-5, 6-8, and 7-5. Trombold, who won the county championship Monday at Salem, is eligible for permanent possession of the city title if he wins again next year.



TOPFLIGHT QUARTERBACK. Veteran quarterback Larry Kessler has developed into one of the better triple-threat backs in the Columbiana County A ranks and is expected to lead Salineville High School to an improved season this year.

Yankee Rivals Spending Money

American League Officials Claim Loop's 'Not Bad Off'

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Is the American League situation as bad as some critics would have you believe?

The league officials say no. The club owners insist—perhaps rightly so—they are constantly battling to build up to New York. Yankee General Manager George Weiss says the junior circuit is better balanced than it has been in years.

The magnates point to the millions of dollars they've spent and are still pouring out in bonuses, in order to obtain the best possible young players. Weiss points to the improvement of the Baltimore, Kansas City and Cleveland clubs, and maintains that Detroit, Boston and Chicago are capable of providing strong opposition to the Yankees next year and for several years after.

"Close to two million dollars have been spent by the seven Yankee rivals in 1958 in an effort to improve," an American League official declared. "Does that look like we're sitting on our hands and resigning ourselves to playing second fiddle to the Yanks? Every one of the clubs is spending money, expanding the farm systems, enlarging the scouting staffs. There are more new young players in the league this year than ever before.

"Sure, we're confronted by a tremendous task. But I have seen no evidence of a defeatist attitude. Right now we're confronted by a Yankee dynasty. But like all dynasties, it will come to an end soon. The Dodgers dominated the National League the same way for ten years. Look at them now."

Weiss' face takes on a grieved look whenever someone brings up the subject of Yankee dominence.

"How can anyone say the Yankees will dominate the American League for years?" he complained. "I don't believe we're dominating anyone right now.

Weir To Face Charleston In Opening Test

By The Associated Press

Many of West Virginia's scholastic football teams will make their debut this weekend, with the hope of being represented in the revamped championship ratings expected in early October.

State schools this season will be grouped as Class AAA, Class AA and Class A. The West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission and principals group did away with the former Class B category.

Executive Secretary W. R. Fugitt of the scholastic organization commented from his Beckley headquarters that the rules changes this season are minor.

The big change is in the rating system, which will provide a team that is defeated an opportunity to remain a championship contender if it competes against teams within its own class.

Weirton won last year's Class AA title, beating Fairmont West in the much-publicized playoff contest Thanksgiving Day at Wheeling. The Class A champion was Huntington Vinson, while Ravenswood won the B title.

Weirton will open its title defense at Charleston Friday night in the headliner of the opening weekend. Both teams were hard hit by graduation. Weirton won all of its games last season, while the speedy Mountain Lions lost only to Huntington East in 10 starts.

The ever increasing cost of operating football will receive the close scrutiny of most schools. Attendance the past few years has been cited as steadily decreasing and the high schools must run their grid programs on gate receipts.

"There is just a lot more competition these days for the so-called entertainment dollar," Fugitt remarked. He explained that it costs about $150 to outfit the average scholastic player, compared with $138 a year ago.

Fugitt addel a happier note, however. He just returned from a series of rules clinics around the state and reported an estimated 450 officials are expected to work games this season, compared with about 400 in recent years.

Hancock Fishermen To Hear Stocking Plans

The Hancock County Fishermen's Club will hold its monthly meeting Friday night at 8 at the Christian Church at Pughtown when federal stocking plans will be announced.

The club will hear a representative of the State Conservation Department at Charleston and Rep. Arch Moore, 1st District congressman, or an aide, will present applications authorizing federal stocking of Hancock streams.

A large turnout is expected, according to Harl Stover, president.

Vitrified Wins, 3-2

Johnny Clendenning hurled a three-hitter as American Vitrified Products defeated Lisbon, 3-2, Wednesday in a softball game. Clendenning also aided his own cause with a double and a single. Jim Eckstein chipped in with a double for the winners.

Chester, Newell Wait Openers On Friday, Saturday

Three Hancock County football teams will make their 1958 debuts this weekend.

Chester and New Cumberland face each other at Chester Friday night at 8, while Newell will meet a highly - regarded Weirton Madonna squad Saturday night at Weirton.

Coach Dom Amedeo reports his Chester team is in good physical condition, with only one starter absent from the lineup. He pointed out, however, that it is his outstanding defensive performer, Pete Dudgeon, who will be missing, and "he could be the difference," the coach commented. The scrappy 165-pound tackle sustained a knee injury in practice and though it has improved Amedeo wants to save him for the remaining nine games. Another tackle, Bruce Myers, a 200-pounder, left the team this week.

The starters named by Amedeo are ends Bob Shaffer and Larry Murray, tackles John Steele and Steve Chepko, guards Ron Pearl and Jerry Linger and center Ralph Williams.

In the backfield, Dave Brookes will be at quarter, Bill Mayhew and Ken Sayre will run the halfbacks and the only returning letterman, Don Shaw, will start at fullback.

Probabley seeing a lot of action in the opener will be linemen John Rodocher, Francis Duke and Larry McSwegin. Backs Dave Lyons and John Moore will be used frequently, Amedeo said.

New Cumberland, anxious to avenge a 35-0 beating administered by the Panthers in last year's opener, have veteran performers at every post.

The probable starting lineup for the Raiders follows: ends, Fred Huff and Ron Gordon; tackles, Chester Richmond and Ralph Chaney; guards, Pete Dawson and Bob Swearingen; center, Dale Fryer; quarterback, George Harris; halfbacks, Bill and Bob Reese, and fullback, Phil Cullen.

Coach Pete Horoszko's Newell charge were in good spirits as they completed workouts in preparation for the Weirton game.

Eight returning lettermen from the nucleus of the squad which, for the most part, is short in experience and depth. Lack of bench strength could be a crucial factor for Newell as the powerful Dons will field a big and rugged squad.

Horozsko expects to go with Bob Shenton and Kenny Arnott at the ends, Dave Cronin and Joe Fuller at the tackles and Larry Hunter at center. The backfield will include quarterback Joe Graham, halfbacks Steve Norris and Harp McCuen and fullback Dennis Lee.

Weirton, which last year thumped Newell in the opener, 28-7, has a polished offense and a rugged defense. The team boasts an excellent passer in quarterback Ronnie Rumora, whose chief target is 190-pound senior end Tom Sessi.

The tentative Dons lineup is: ends, Sessi and John Cook; tackles, Gene Palcic and Pat Brancazio; guards, Gene Podeszwa and Marty Kaczmarek, and center Jocko Pulice. Their fleet-footed backfield is led by Rumora, with Tom Irwin and Barry Martin at the halfbacks. Norman Blanchard, 175-pound sophomore fullback, rounds out the backfield.

Potters Please Coaches In Showing At Struthers

The East Liverpool Potters engaged in their final pre - season scrimmage game at Struthers yesterday and Coach Lou Venditti, commenting on their performance, said, "they looked like champs."

The Potters scored only one more touchdown than Struthers in the hour and 30-minute contest, but they tallied four of them in succession in 40 minutes. Struthers scored three markers late in the game against Venditti's untried sophomores.

"As I noted in the early training stages," said Venditti, "lack of depth will be our most serious problem this year." The coach feels that any games the team will lose will result from a poor second half showing.

Three of the Potter regulars did not see action in the scrimmage and two of them are not likely to be on hand for tomorrow night's preview at Patterson Field. Fullback Bill O'Neil is the only one on the injured list slated for duty in the preview. End Craig Burbick and tackle Jim Clunk will both be saved for the opener.

Venditti was pleased with the jobs turned in by their replacements in yesterday's scrimmage. O'Neil's substitute, Henry Roach, played 40 minutes of good football and was removed when he was slightly injured. Carl Ludwig, subbing for the injured Clunk, did a stellar job on defense.

Venditti cited the offensive and defensive work of his dependable linemen, Nick Musuraca and Mike Kapp, as outstanding.

In the backfield, he was particularly pleased with the running of halfback Dave Zelch. "I have never seen him hit harder," said Venditti. With Goodballet at the other half, the Potters should have a formidable pair of runners.

Venditti feels that the scrimmage sessions have been particularly helpful in seasoning his young club. "With another year of experience, some of my sophomores are going to be rugged." He added that he was taking extra precautions so that the younger players would not leave the team as happened with 10 of last year's sophomore crop.

Mike Panitch, Michigan State's No. 1 quarterback prospect for 1958, was named the top performer in Chicago's Public School League while playing for Austin High in 1953.

Fourth Annual Grid Preview Awaited Here Friday Night

10 Of District Elevens Will Join In Action

Between 3,000 and 5,000 fans are expected to be on hand Friday night at Patterson Field when the fourth annual preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club offers a fast - moving preliminary to the football season which lies ahead.

Ten district teams will battle in abbreviated contests during a full night of gridiron action which will include pairings of old rivals who will not meet in regular season play.

A flag - raising ceremony is scheduled for 6:30, with the kick-off promptly at 7 p. m.

Leetonia's Polar Bears and United High School will lead off in the first game, with Salineville meeting Beaver Local in the second at 7:30.

Leetonia, guided by Coach Pat Mancusco, will face stiff competition in United, which has a full team returning from last year. A full season is in prospect for Coach Ray Russell's Golden Eagles.

A rugged battle also is expected in the Beaver Local - Salineville game, both teams being loaded with veterans. Coach Jack O'Rourke will make his debut with the Beavers, who also have a full squad returning from 1957. Salineville will be led by a topflight quarterback in Larry Kessler, a passing artist. Richard Jones again returns as head coach.

The third game at 8 will pit Toronto against Columbiana, while old rivals will meet in the fourth game at 8:45 when Salem opposes Lisbon.

East Liverpool High School's marching band will perform from 8:30 to 8:45 before the fourth game between Coach Earl Bruce's Salem Quakers and Bud Bucher's Lisbon Blue Devils.

Kickoff time for the finale is 9:15, when Coach Lou Venditti will send his East Liverpool Potters against Wellsville guided for the first time by Coach Ken Woods, formerly of Fairfield-Waterford.

Nonpareil members said that advance ticket sales indicate a record - breaking crowd.

Beaver Local fans gobbled up their first allotment of 220 reserved seat tickets and were sent 150 more yesterday, Ed Hester, general chairman of the preview, said.

Hester announced that plenty of reserved seat tickets will be on sale at the gate at game time at $1 each. Students who bought advanced tickets at their respective schools paid 35 cents, but 50 cents will be charged at the gate on game night.

Tickets may be purchased at Dick Brian's, Heimies and Reark's and the Louis - James Clothing store in East End.

Newell was previously scheduled to meet Leetonia in the first game, but had to drop out because of a regular season game the following night at Weirton Madonna.

Ticket chairman is Dick Forzano. Laird Christan heads the concession stand committee.

Dove Population Seen Growing In Hancock

The dove population is increasing, according to Oliver Johnson, Hancock County agricultural agent, who said he saw a flock of over 50 recently.

Now considered a game bird in West Virginia, they were classified as a song bird and protected for many years.

Some persons know the bird as the rain crow, taking its mournful call as a sign of rain.

Kessler Should Be Triple-Threat At Quarterback For Indians

By CHUCK CRONIN

Injuries have plagued Salineville High School's football team as Dick Jones begins his third year as head coach of the Indians with nine returning lettermen among a squad of nearly 40.

While the injury problem figures to be troublesome during the regular season which opens for Salineville Sept. 13 with Darlington, the concern now is fielding a strong starting eleven for the football preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field.

The Indians will meet dangerous Beaver Local in the second game at 7:30 and may be forced to go without the services of triple-threat quarterback Larry Kessler.

A three - year letterman who has played quarterback at Salineville since a freshman, he will be feared by opponents this year in both running and passing. He also handles the punting handily.

Jones, who feels his star signal-caller is one of the district's top-flight performers, may have Kessler sit out Friday's game because of a painful back injury which developed this week. Kessler also has a sprained left leg, but it will not hamper his kicking too much if he gets the starting call, Jones indicated.

Kessler, 180-pound senior, will probably team with Rich Dunlap, Dick Noles and Ron Dunlevy in the backfield during the regular season. The backfield will have plenty of speed and enough of a scoring punch to better last year's season record of three wins and three losses.

Dunlap is expected to handle much of the ball - carrying duties and should be "outstanding" this year among the smaller circles in Columbiana County, Jones said. However, he is suffering with leg trouble.

"We'll go with a multiple offense with an unbalanced line this year, but may shift into a single-wing attack at times to give Kessler more time to throw passes" Jones pointed out.

Kerr and Beadnell have developed into fair pass catchers and probably will answer the starting whistle, Jones said, while Malone and Floyd Hays probably will go at the tackle slots.

Jones lost a prospective tackles in Don Hillyer, who suffered a broken shoulder during a scrimmage game last week with Chester. Hillyer, only a sophomore, weighs 170 and would have added some heft to the Indians' line.

Tom Raffle and Allen Richardson, both lightweights, probably will be the first-string guards, while Chuck Tepsic, 160-pound junior will get the nod at center.

While depth looms as a major problem, several promising freshmen and sophomores have showed they can be depended on to fill in for any of the starters.

Jones singled out Jack Baker, 180-pound tackle, a freshman; Bud Leatherberry, 160-pound freshman halfback, and Ron Jones, an end, as among those who should see a lot of action this autumn.

Jones, 160-pound freshman, will be used mainly with the defensive unit.

Losses from graduation included Howard Harker, Bill Mundy, Earl Manning, Nelson Carmen, Henry Carmen, Joe Polen, Allen Cunningham and Ernie Beadnell. Harker, a middle guard, was a mainstay with last year's club and will be especially missed, Jones said.

Dave Fox, a graduate of Delroy High School and Kent State University, is assisting in football at Salineville this year.

While nearly all district schools play only night games, the Indians' only time under the lights will be in the preview Friday night, as the regular season schedule calls for afternoon games. All but two are Saturday games.

Yankee Rivals Spending Money

American League Officials Claim Loop's 'Not Bad Off'

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Is the American League situation as bad as some critics would have you believe?

The league officials say no. The club owners insist—perhaps rightly so—they are constantly battling to build up to New York. Yankee General Manager George Weiss says the junior circuit is better balanced than it has been in years.

The magnates point to the millions of dollars they've spent and are still pouring out in bonuses, in order to obtain the best possible young players. Weiss points to the improvement of the Baltimore, Kansas City and Cleveland clubs, and maintains that Detroit, Boston and Chicago are capable of providing strong opposition to the Yankees next year and for several years after.

"Close to two million dollars have been spent by the seven Yankee rivals in 1958 in an effort to improve," an American League official declared. "Does that look like we're sitting on our hands and resigning ourselves to playing second fiddle to the Yanks? Every one of the clubs is spending money, expanding the farm systems, enlarging the scouting staffs. There are more new young players in the league this year than ever before.

"Sure, we're confronted by a tremendous task. But I have seen no evidence of a defeatist attitude. Right now we're confronted by a Yankee dynasty. But like all dynasties, it will come to an end soon. The Dodgers dominated the National League the same way for ten years. Look at them now."

Weiss' face takes on a grieved look whenever someone brings up the subject of Yankee dominence.

"How can anyone say the Yankees will dominate the American League for years?" he complained. "I don't believe we're dominating anyone right now.

Vitrified Wins, 3-2

Johnny Clendenning hurled a three-hitter as American Vitrified Products defeated Lisbon, 3-2, Wednesday in a softball game. Clendenning also aided his own cause with a double and a single. Jim Eckstein chipped in with a double for the winners.

Weir To Face Charleston In Opening Test

By The Associated Press

Many of West Virginia's scholastic football teams will make their debut this weekend, with the hope of being represented in the revamped championship ratings expected in early October.

State schools this season will be grouped as Class AAA, Class AA and Class A. The West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission and principals group did away with the former Class B category.

Executive Secretary W. R. Fugitt of the scholastic organization commented from his Beckley headquarters that the rules changes this season are minor.

The big change is in the rating system, which will provide a team that is defeated an opportunity to remain a championship contender if it competes against teams within its own class.

Weirton won last year's Class AA title, beating Fairmont West in the much-publicized playoff contest Thanksgiving Day at Wheeling. The Class A champion was Huntington Vinson, while Ravenswood won the B title.

Weirton will open its title defense at Charleston Friday night in the headliner of the opening weekend. Both teams were hard hit by graduation. Weirton won all of its games last season, while the speedy Mountain Lions lost only to Huntington East in 10 starts.

The ever increasing cost of operating football will receive the close scrutiny of most schools. Attendance the past few years has been cited as steadily decreasing and the high schools must run their grid programs on gate receipts.

"There is just a lot more competition these days for the so-called entertainment dollar," Fugitt remarked. He explained that it costs about $150 to outfit the average scholastic player, compared with $138 a year ago.

Fugitt addel a happier note, however. He just returned from a series of rules clinics around the state and reported an estimated 450 officials are expected to work games this season, compared with about 400 in recent years.

Chester, Newell Wait Openers On Friday, Saturday

Three Hancock County football teams will make their 1958 debuts this weekend.

Chester and New Cumberland face each other at Chester Friday night at 8, while Newell will meet a highly - regarded Weirton Madonna squad Saturday night at Weirton.

Coach Dom Amedeo reports his Chester team is in good physical condition, with only one starter absent from the lineup. He pointed out, however, that it is his outstanding defensive performer, Pete Dudgeon, who will be missing, and "he could be the difference," the coach commented. The scrappy 165-pound tackle sustained a knee injury in practice and though it has improved Amedeo wants to save him for the remaining nine games. Another tackle, Bruce Myers, a 200-pounder, left the team this week.

The starters named by Amedeo are ends Bob Shaffer and Larry Murray, tackles John Steele and Steve Chepko, guards Ron Pearl and Jerry Linger and center Ralph Williams.

In the backfield, Dave Brookes will be at quarter, Bill Mayhew and Ken Sayre will run the halfbacks and the only returning letterman, Don Shaw, will start at fullback.

Probabley seeing a lot of action in the opener will be linemen John Rodocher, Francis Duke and Larry McSwegin. Backs Dave Lyons and John Moore will be used frequently, Amedeo said.

New Cumberland, anxious to avenge a 35-0 beating administered by the Panthers in last year's opener, have veteran performers at every post.

The probable starting lineup for the Raiders follows: ends, Fred Huff and Ron Gordon; tackles, Chester Richmond and Ralph Chaney; guards, Pete Dawson and Bob Swearingen; center, Dale Fryer; quarterback, George Harris; halfbacks, Bill and Bob Reese, and fullback, Phil Cullen.

Coach Pete Horoszko's Newell charge were in good spirits as they completed workouts in preparation for the Weirton game.

Eight returning lettermen from the nucleus of the squad which, for the most part, is short in experience and depth. Lack of bench strength could be a crucial factor for Newell as the powerful Dons will field a big and rugged squad.

Horozsko expects to go with Bob Shenton and Kenny Arnott at the ends, Dave Cronin and Joe Fuller at the tackles and Larry Hunter at center. The backfield will include quarterback Joe Graham, halfbacks Steve Norris and Harp McCuen and fullback Dennis Lee.

Weirton, which last year thumped Newell in the opener, 28-7, has a polished offense and a rugged defense. The team boasts an excellent passer in quarterback Ronnie Rumora, whose chief target is 190-pound senior end Tom Sessi.

The tentative Dons lineup is: ends, Sessi and John Cook; tackles, Gene Palcic and Pat Brancazio; guards, Gene Podeszwa and Marty Kaczmarek, and center Jocko Pulice. Their fleet-footed backfield is led by Rumora, with Tom Irwin and Barry Martin at the halfbacks. Norman Blanchard, 175-pound sophomore fullback, rounds out the backfield.

Potters Please Coaches In Showing At Struthers

The East Liverpool Potters engaged in their final pre - season scrimmage game at Struthers yesterday and Coach Lou Venditti, commenting on their performance, said, "they looked like champs."

The Potters scored only one more touchdown than Struthers in the hour and 30-minute contest, but they tallied four of them in succession in 40 minutes. Struthers scored three markers late in the game against Venditti's untried sophomores.

"As I noted in the early training stages," said Venditti, "lack of depth will be our most serious problem this year." The coach feels that any games the team will lose will result from a poor second half showing.

Three of the Potter regulars did not see action in the scrimmage and two of them are not likely to be on hand for tomorrow night's preview at Patterson Field. Fullback Bill O'Neil is the only one on the injured list slated for duty in the preview. End Craig Burbick and tackle Jim Clunk will both be saved for the opener.

Venditti was pleased with the jobs turned in by their replacements in yesterday's scrimmage. O'Neil's substitute, Henry Roach, played 40 minutes of good football and was removed when he was slightly injured. Carl Ludwig, subbing for the injured Clunk, did a stellar job on defense.

He added that he was taking extra precautions so that the younger players would not leave the team as happened with 10 of last year's sophomore crop.

Mike Panitch, Michigan State's No. 1 quarterback prospect for 1958, was named the top performer in Chicago's Public School League while playing for Austin High in 1953.

Braves Clobber Phils, 11-5, To Stretch Lead To 9 Games

Bucs, Giants Lose Ground To Champions

By The Associated Press

Warren Spahn seemed to have hit a snag in pursuit of his ninth season of 20 or more victories. He had won only one of his last three decisions, and there he was, trailing 1-0 after seven innings.

So the Milwaukee Braves came up with 11 runs in the last two frames at Philadelphia Wednesday night, beating the Phillies 11-5 for Spahnie's 18th victory.

It gave them a nine-game lead in the National League — their largest since moving to Milwaukee in 1953.

Cincinnati knocked off the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-4 and Los Angeles kept San Francisco in a second-place tie with the Bucs by trimming the Giants 5-3. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-7 in 12 innings.

In the American League, New York beat Boston 8-5. The Chicago White Sox defeated Detroit 1-0 with only two hits. Baltimore defeated Washington 4-3 and Kansas City rapped Cleveland 6-2.

The Braves came from behind on Joe Adcock's three-run homer, his 17th, in the eighth, chasing loser Seth Morehead (1-4). The champs made it a six-run inning against reliever Jim Hearn with the help of errors by the Phils, who counted five boots for the game, then put across five more in the ninth.

Three runs in the seventh won it for the Redlegs. George Crowe's single scored the run that broke a 4-4 tie, and Don Newcombe's two-run pinch single put it away. Don Gross (5-6) was the loser, with Willard Schmidt (3-6) the winner, both in relief.

The Dodgers made it two in a row over the Giants for the first time this season on Duke Snider's two-run homer in the ninth off losing reliever Red Worthington (11-7). The Giants managed only four hits. They got only two over the last seven innings off reliever Sandy Koufax (10-9), one a solo homer by Orlando Cepeda, his 24th, in the sixth for a 3-3 tie.

Joe Cunningham's fourth hit, a two-run triple with two out in the 12th, got the job done for the Cardinals and reliever Jim Brosnan (10-8). Cunningham drove in four runs for the Cards, who scored four unearned runs in the third, then blew a 7-2 lead as Ernie Banks hit his 43rd home run, Bobby Thomson his 18th and Tony Taylor his sixth for the Cubs. Bill Henry (4-4), sixth of seven Cub hurlers, lost it.

Anthony Defeats McBride In First Heavyweight Go

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) —Ernest (Tony) Anthony has stuck a rather timid toe in the heavyweight division's door with a two-point, split decision over unranked heavy Archie McBride.

Anthony weighed 177¼, McBride 184.

The classy stylist showed a left hand that McBride long will remember, but his debut in the unlimited division Wednesday night was anything but impressive.

Anthony won the 10-round, nationally televised (ABC) bout on Referee Joe Palmer's point allotment. The referee gave Anthony seven points and McBride five, after scoring five rounds for each.

Judge Dick Albino was overwhelmingly in favor of Anthony 8-2. Harold McGrath saw it 6-4 in favor of McBride. The AP scored five rounds for Anthony, three for McBride and two even.

Anthony, who won his 35th in 41 bouts (he had one draw), said he thought he had won the fight easily.

Yank Magic Number 10

Lary Loses, 1-0, Despite 2-Hitter

By The Associated Press

Think you want to be a major league pitcher? Nice job, that. You can give up 10 hits in one game and win, then allow the same club only two hits five days later and lose.

Or you can win nine of your last 11 decisions — and finally reach .500 for the season, too.

That's the way things went Wednesday night for right - hander Frank Lary of the Detroit Tigers, who lost 1-0, and Dick Donovan of the Chicago White Sox, who beat him with a five-hitter.

Lary (14-13) had a no-hitter for 6 1-3 innings. Then Billy Goodman blooped a single and Sherm Lollar followed with a double. Lary retired the next eight men, but it was all over. Donovan made off with his second consecutive shutout and a 12-12 record. He had only a 3-10 record at the All-Star game, but has won all but two of 11 decisions since.

The New York Yankees reduced their magic number to 10 over the second place White Sox by defeating Boston 8-5.

Baltimore broke a tie for fourth with Detroit by defeating Washington 4-3. Kansas City rapped Cleveland 6-2, but the seventh-place A's were eliminated officially from the flag chase by the Yank victory.

In the National League, Milwaukee smacked Philadelphia 11-5 after seven scoreless innings, giving the Braves a nine-game lead and reducing their magic number to 13. Pittsburgh lost 7-4 at Cincinnati, and San Francisco, tied for second with the Pirates, lost 5-3 at Los Angeles. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-7 in 12 innings.

The Yankees put it away on Yogi Berra's 22nd home run, a three-run shot in the ninth off Leo Kiely — a lefty reliever brought in to face the left-handed batting Berra. Ryne Duren (6-3) won it with two perfect innings, fanning the last four men, in relief of Murry Dickson. Murray Wall (7-8) was the loser.

Baltimore took it with two runs in the ninth, on a pair of walks, a tie-breaking pinch single by Bob Hale and a clinching single by Bob Boyd. Arnie Portocarrero (13-10) won his first in three weeks. Vito Valentinelli (4-3) was the loser.

Bob Cerv's 31st home run and Hal Smith's fifth powered a tie-breaking, four-run fifth inning for the A's against loser Hal Woodeshick (3-6). Ray Herbert (5-7) won it with a five-hitter, blanking the Injuns on two hits (both by Minnie Minoso) after the first inning, when Lary Doby's 11th homer counted two runs.

Only 4,748 Turn Out As Indians Lose 6 To 2

CLEVELAND (AP)—All in all, it was a rather sorry start the Cleveland Indians got Wednesday night in the first game of their last long home stand.

Only 4,748 fans turned out in ideal baseball weather to welcome the Tribe back from a long road trip — a trip during which rumors were rife that the club might be moved to another city.

Then before the game started, Bob Avila, regular second baseman, was struck in the face by a ground ball in infield practice. The blow caused a fracture on the left side of the face. If X-rays today show the bone must be wired, Avila will miss the rest of the season, Dr. Don Kelly, team physician, said.

The actual play started out fine for Indian partisans when Larry Doby smashed his 11th homer over the 380-foot sign in deep left field after Mickey Vernon had led off with a double.

But the 2-0 lead didn't last and the Kansas City Athletics' stocky righthander, Ray Herbert, yielded only two more hits — a single and double by Minnie Minoso — after that first inning.

The Athletics won 6-2 to end a five-game losing string and the Indians' four-game victory skien. It was the fifth straight loss for Hal Woodeshick, who is now 3-6.

Herbert started the rally that tied the score in the third by singling and making the rounds on Bill Tuttle's double and an infield out. Tuttle came home on Hector Lopez's line single.

A single by Tuttle and double by Lopez produced the visitors first run in their four-run fifth inning. Bob Cerv and Hal Smith then clouted consecutive home runs. For Cerv it was the 31st, a club record for Kansas City.

Ray Narleski pitched the next two innings, and Don Mossi the last two, each allowing one Kansas City hit.

Today the two - game series ends with Cal McLish against the Athletics Ralph Terry.

Williams Making Strong Bid As WVU's No. 2 Quarterback

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (AP) — Sophomore Danny Williams is making a strong bid for the No. 2 quarterback job on the West Virginia football varsity.

The all - around Beckley athlete pulled two of the most stirring plays of the day in yesterday's scrimmage session against the frosh. Williams, operating with the second unit behind first-stringer Dick Longfellow, broke loose for a touchdown run on the option play, then connected on a scoring pass to Ray Borlie, sophomore end from Portage, Pa.

Another sophomore, Johnny Marra of Shinnston, was among the standouts in the corps of backs who had a field day against the frosh.

Dave Rider of War reeled off a pair of touchdown runs, while speedster Ray Peterson of Falls Church, Va. and dandy little Dick Manion, 160-pounder from Wheeling, uncorked explosive jaunts.

Mel (Lefty) Reight of Etna, Pa. made spectacular grab of a Longfellow pass for another long run.

The frosh, limited to playing defense throughout the session, were sparked by Jim Bargeloh, Parkersburg halfback who won the Kennedy Award last year.

Coach Art Lewis, well pleased with the showing of his backs, said much improvement had been noted since the training camp drills got under way last Monday.

Lewis also took time out to praise his current top crop of players.

"These are clean - living young men who have the desire to succeed as a team," the burly mentor declared. "They have neither the total ability of some other squads nor any individual stars. But they could make up in desire what they lack in physical talent."

Several of the veteran varsity players declared that this is the best group of frosh they have seen at WVU.

OSU Grid Coach Making Switches In Buck Lineup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Although most of Ohio State's 1957 Big Ten football champion lineup is returning, fans are still going to need a program to tell who's playing — or at least where they are playing.

Wednesday Coach Woody Hayes pulled out Dick Schafrath, a 212-pound tackle standout from Wooster, and moved him to the right end position.

Hayes called the switch an experiment but added Schafrath "has the speed and versatility to become our best pass catcher."

The OSU coach called the big senior "the best downfield blocker in the country."

By shifting Schafrath, Hayes made room to use some more of his plentiful supply of tackle material. He inserted sophomore Jim Tyrer, a 6-foot, 6-inch, 254-pounder from Newark, into the vacated slot.

Reds' Three In 7th Down Pirates, 7-4

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The old time vaudeville performers who used to hop-scotch around the country making one-night stands had nothing on the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Redlegs flew in here today for a game with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Tuesday night they were in St. Louis and Wednesday night they defeated the Pirates in Cincinnati, 7-4. Thursday they'll be in Philadelphia for a game with the Phils.

In the game at Cincinnati, acting Manager Jimmy Dykes looked like a super mastermind.

During the course of the see-saw game Dykes sent four pinch hitters into the game and on three of the four occasions he picked the right man. Pete Whisenant, Bob Thurman and Don Newcombe came through with sorely needed hits. Newcombe's blow came during a seventh-inning uprising and drove in two runs that clinched the verdict over the Pirates.

The Pirates at one time had a 2-1 lead. Then the Redlegs went out ahead at 3-2. The Pirates took over again at 4-3 but Cincinnati tied it up. That's the way it stood when the Cincinnatians broke loose in the seventh.

The Pirates got a run in each the third and fourth off starter Tom Acker. Acker's wild pitch let Dick Groat score after two singles had set it up. Then in the fourth singles by Frank Thomas, Bob Skinner and Dick Groat accounted for another run.

The first of two errors by Thomas led to the first Cincinnati run in the fourth with George Crowe driving in the tally with a sacrifice fly. Frank Robinson singled home two runs in the fifth but the Pirates went back ahead in the sixth on a single by Thomas, a triple by Groat and a double by Bill Hall.

A walk, Thurman's single and Thomas' second error allowed the Redlegs to tie it up in their half.

The Redlegs, who didn't get an extra base hit in the entire game, combined five one-base blows for their three runs in the seventh. They came from Whisenant, Smoky Burgess, Crowe, Alex Grammas and Newcombe.

Crowe's hit put Cincinnati ahead and Newcombe's two-run wallop came with the bases loaded.

Harvey Haddix is due to pitch tonight for the Redlegs against Pittsburgh's Ronnie Kline.

Elliott Runs 3:55.4 Mile; Predicts 3:50

LONDON (AP) — Australian Herb Elliott ran a mile in 3:55.4 Wednesday night and said afterwards he could better 3:50.

The time was second only to Elliott's 3:54.5 world record in Dublin Aug. 6.

Promoter Terry O'Connor said Elliott contributed at least 15,000 to the crowd of 45,000, and added $22,400 to the gate.

The 20-year-old Aussie has been under 4 minutes 10 times since last January and ran the 1,500 meters in a world-record-smashing 3:36 at Goteborg, Sweden, last week.

Now his sights are set on the 1,000-meter mark. He takes aim on that mark of 2:19 in Oslo Friday. The record is held jointly by Norway's Audun Boysen and Hungary's Istvan Rozsavolgyi.

Second-place finisher was England's Brian Hewson in 3:58.9. Zbigniew Orywal of Poland was third in 3:59.7. Derek Ibbotson of England, whose listed world record of 3:57.2 twice has been bettered by the Australian, finished fourth in 4 minutes flat.

The fox, ibex, lynx and ox are four animals whose names end with the letter X.

Richardson Has Cup Spot Despite Loss

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—If Hamilton Richardson wants to play on the Davis Cup team in the Challenge Round against Australia, all he has to do is say the word.

U.S. cup bigwigs were disappointed at Richardson's straight set defeat at the hands of Ulf Schmidt in the National Championships Wednesday. But they were inclined to shrug it off.

"One defeat doesn't make any difference in my way of thinking," said Cup Captain Perry Jones.

Jim Moffett, chairman of the cup Selection Committee, observed: "You can't eliminate him just because he lost to Schmidt."

The Cup Committee and the Selection Committee meet today to iron out details for the selection of players for the team. On Sunday, the Selection Committee meets alone and a team will be named.

Schmidt's next opponent will be Herbie Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif., who turned back giant-killer Chris Crawford, Piedmont, Calif., 4-6, 12-10, 6-1, 6-4. The 19-year-old Crawford had beaten Gardnar Mulloy, Barry MacKay and Australian Bob Mark in earlier rounds.

Vic Seixas, 35, continued his remarkable performance by outclassing Mike Green, Miami Beach, 6-2, 7-5, 8-6. Australia's Mal Anderson, the defending champion, ousted Britain's Billy Knight 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 8-6.

Seixas meets Australia's Ashley Cooper, an old buddy, in one quarter-final today while Neale Fraser of Australia tangles with Alex Olmedo of Peru in the other.

In the women's division, top-seeded Althea Gibson marched into the quarter-finals along with Maria Bueno of Brazil, No. 4; Christine Truman of Britain, No. 7; and Mrs. Beverly Fleitz, Long Beach, Calif., No. 8.

Farrell Says Jesting In 'Handing' Series

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A remark by Kerby Farrell, manager of the Miami Marlins, that Havana recently "handed" Columbus a four-game International League series caused the Marlin manager to appear Wednesday before George M. Trautman, president of the minor leagues.

Farrell, after making the comment Tuesday, said he made it in jest and as a psychological jab at his Marlins who followed Havana into Columbus.

Trautman's statement on the hearing will be issued later, his office reported.

Peregrination means wandering, journeying.

Braves Clobber Phils, 11-5, To Stretch Lead To 9 Games

Bucs, Giants Lose Ground To Champions

By The Associated Press

Warren Spahn seemed to have hit a snag in pursuit of his ninth season of 20 or more victories. He had won only one of his last three decisions, and there he was, trailing 1-0 after seven innings.

So the Milwaukee Braves came up with 11 runs in the last two frames at Philadelphia Wednesday night, beating the Phillies 11-5 for Spahnie's 18th victory.

It gave them a nine-game lead in the National League — their largest since moving to Milwaukee in 1953.

Cincinnati knocked off the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-4 and Los Angeles kept San Francisco in a second-place tie with the Bucs by trimming the Giants 5-3. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-7 in 12 innings.

In the American League, New York beat Boston 8-5. The Chicago White Sox defeated Detroit 1-0 with only two hits. Baltimore defeated Washington 4-3 and Kansas City rapped Cleveland 6-2.

The Braves came from behind on Joe Adcock's three-run homer, his 17th, in the eighth, chasing loser Seth Morehead (1-4). The champs made it a six-run inning against reliever Jim Hearn with the help of errors by the Phils, who counted five boots for the game, then put across five more in the ninth.

Three runs in the seventh won it for the Redlegs. George Crowe's single scored the run that broke a 4-4 tie, and Don Newcombe's two-run pinch single put it away. Don Gross (5-6) was the loser, with Willard Schmidt (3-6) the winner, both in relief.

The Dodgers made it two in a row over the Giants for the first time this season on Duke Snider's two-run homer in the ninth off losing reliever Red Worthington (11-7). The Giants managed only four hits. They got only two over the last seven innings off reliever Sandy Koufax (10-9), one a solo homer by Orlando Cepeda, his 24th, in the sixth for a 3-3 tie.

Joe Cunningham's fourth hit, a two-run triple with two out in the 12th, got the job done for the Cardinals and reliever Jim Brosnan (10-8). Cunningham drove in four runs for the Cards, who scored four unearned runs in the third, then blew a 7-2 lead as Ernie Banks hit his 43rd home run, Bobby Thomson his 18th and Tony Taylor his sixth for the Cubs. Bill Henry (4-4), sixth of seven Cub hurlers, lost it.

FIGHT RESULTS

Syracuse, N. Y. — Tony Anthony, 177¼, New York, outpointed Archie McBride, 184, Trenton, N.J. 10.

Anthony Defeats McBride In First Heavyweight Go

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) —Ernest (Tony) Anthony has stuck a rather timid toe in the heavyweight division's door with a two-point, split decision over unranked heavy Archie McBride.

Anthony weighed 177¼, McBride 184.

The classy stylist showed a left hand that McBride long will remember, but his debut in the unlimited division Wednesday night was anything but impressive.

Anthony won the 10-round, nationally televised (ABC) bout on Referee Joe Palmer's point allotment. The referee gave Anthony seven points and McBride five, after scoring five rounds for each.

Judge Dick Albino was overwhelmingly in favor of Anthony 8-2. Harold McGrath saw it 6-4 in favor of McBride. The AP scored five rounds for Anthony, three for McBride and two even.

Anthony, who won his 35th in 41 bouts (he had one draw), said he thought he had won the fight easily.

Yank Magic Number 10

Lary Loses, 1-0, Despite 2-Hitter

By The Associated Press

Think you want to be a major league pitcher? Nice job, that. You can give up 10 hits in one game and win, then allow the same club only two hits five days later and lose.

Or you can win nine of your last 11 decisions — and finally reach .500 for the season, too.

That's the way things went Wednesday night for right - hander Frank Lary of the Detroit Tigers, who lost 1-0, and Dick Donovan of the Chicago White Sox, who beat him with a five-hitter.

Lary (14-13) had a no-hitter for 6 1-3 innings. Then Billy Goodman blooped a single and Sherm Lollar followed with a double. Lary retired the next eight men, but it was all over. Donovan made off with his second consecutive shutout and a 12-12 record. He had only a 3-10 record at the All-Star game, but has won all but two of 11 decisions since.

The New York Yankees reduced their magic number to 10 over the second place White Sox by defeating Boston 8-5.

Baltimore broke a tie for fourth with Detroit by defeating Washington 4-3. Kansas City rapped Cleveland 6-2, but the seventh-place A's were eliminated officially from the flag chase by the Yank victory.

In the National League, Milwaukee smacked Philadelphia 11-5 after seven scoreless innings, giving the Braves a nine-game lead and reducing their magic number to 13. Pittsburgh lost 7-4 at Cincinnati, and San Francisco, tied for second with the Pirates, lost 5-3 at Los Angeles. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-7 in 12 innings.

The Yankees put it away on Yogi Berra's 22nd home run, a three-run shot in the ninth off Leo Kiely — a lefty reliever brought in to face the left-handed batting Berra. Ryne Duren (6-3) won it with two perfect innings, fanning the last four men, in relief of Murry Dickson. Murray Wall (7-8) was the loser.

Baltimore took it with two runs in the ninth, on a pair of walks, a tie-breaking pinch single by Bob Hale and a clinching single by Bob Boyd. Arnie Portocarrero (13-10) won his first in three weeks. Vito Valentinelli (4-3) was the loser.

Bob Cerv's 31st home run and Hal Smith's fifth powered a tie-breaking, four-run fifth inning for the A's against loser Hal Woodeshick (3-6). Ray Herbert (5-7) won it with a five-hitter, blanking the Injuns on two hits (both by Minnie Minoso) after the first inning, when Lary Doby's 11th homer counted two runs.

Only 4,748 Turn Out As Indians Lose 6 To 2

CLEVELAND (AP)—All in all, it was a rather sorry start the Cleveland Indians got Wednesday night in the first game of their last long home stand.

Only 4,748 fans turned out in ideal baseball weather to welcome the Tribe back from a long road trip — a trip during which rumors were rife that the club might be moved to another city.

Then before the game started, Bob Avila, regular second baseman, was struck in the face by a ground ball in infield practice. The blow caused a fracture on the left side of the face. If X-rays today show the bone must be wired, Avila will miss the rest of the season, Dr. Don Kelly, team physician, said.

The actual play started out fine for Indian partisans when Larry Doby smashed his 11th homer over the 380-foot sign in deep left field after Mickey Vernon had led off with a double.

But the 2-0 lead didn't last and the Kansas City Athletics' stocky righthander, Ray Herbert, yielded only two more hits — a single and double by Minnie Minoso — after that first inning.

The Athletics won 6-2 to end a five-game losing string and the Indians' four-game victory skien. It was the fifth straight loss for Hal Woodeshick, who is now 3-6.

Herbert started the rally that tied the score in the third by singling and making the rounds on Bill Tuttle's double and an infield out. Tuttle came home on Hector Lopez's line single.

A single by Tuttle and double by Lopez produced the visitors first run in their four-run fifth inning. Bob Cerv and Hal Smith then clouted consecutive home runs. For Cerv it was the 31st, a club record for Kansas City.

Ray Narleski pitched the next two innings, and Don Mossi the last two, each allowing one Kansas City hit.

Today the two - game series ends with Cal McLish against the Athletics Ralph Terry.

Williams Making Strong Bid As WVU's No. 2 Quarterback

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (AP) — Sophomore Danny Williams is making a strong bid for the No. 2 quarterback job on the West Virginia football varsity.

The all - around Beckley athlete pulled two of the most stirring plays of the day in yesterday's scrimmage session against the frosh. Williams, operating with the second unit behind first-stringer Dick Longfellow, broke loose for a touchdown run on the option play, then connected on a scoring pass to Ray Borlie, sophomore end from Portage, Pa.

Another sophomore, Johnny Marra of Shinnston, was among the standouts in the corps of backs who had a field day against the frosh.

Dave Rider of War reeled off a pair of touchdown runs, while speedster Ray Peterson of Falls Church, Va. and dandy little Dick Manion, 160-pounder from Wheeling, uncorked explosive jaunts.

Mel (Lefty) Reight of Etna, Pa. made spectacular grab of a Longfellow pass for another long run.

The frosh, limited to playing defense throughout the session, were sparked by Jim Bargeloh, Parkersburg halfback who won the Kennedy Award last year.

Coach Art Lewis, well pleased with the showing of his backs, said much improvement had been noted since the training camp drills got under way last Monday.

Lewis also took time out to praise his current top crop of players.

"These are clean - living young men who have the desire to succeed as a team," the burly mentor declared. "They have neither the total ability of some other squads nor any individual stars. But they could make up in desire what they lack in physical talent."

Several of the veteran varsity players declared that this is the best group of frosh they have seen at WVU.

OSU Grid Coach Making Switches In Buck Lineup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Although most of Ohio State's 1957 Big Ten football champion lineup is returning, fans are still going to need a program to tell who's playing — or at least where they are playing.

Wednesday Coach Woody Hayes pulled out Dick Schafrath, a 212-pound tackle standout from Wooster, and moved him to the right end position.

Hayes called the switch an experiment but added Schafrath "has the speed and versatility to become our best pass catcher."

The OSU coach called the big senior "the best downfield blocker in the country."

By shifting Schafrath, Hayes made room to use some more of his plentiful supply of tackle material. He inserted sophomore Jim Tyrer, a 6-foot, 6-inch, 254-pounder from Newark, into the vacated slot.

Karl Marx, the author of the Communist Manifesto, was born in Treves, Prussia, May 5, 1818.

Reds' Three In 7th Down Pirates, 7-4

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The old time vaudeville performers who used to hop-scotch around the country making one-night stands had nothing on the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Redlegs flew in here today for a game with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Tuesday night they were in St. Louis and Wednesday night they defeated the Pirates in Cincinnati, 7-4. Thursday they'll be in Philadelphia for a game with the Phils.

In the game at Cincinnati, acting Manager Jimmy Dykes looked like a super mastermind.

During the course of the see-saw game Dykes sent four pinch hitters into the game and on three of the four occasions he picked the right man. Pete Whisenant, Bob Thurman and Don Newcombe came through with sorely needed hits. Newcombe's blow came during a seventh-inning uprising and drove in two runs that clinched the verdict over the Pirates.

The Pirates at one time had a 2-1 lead. Then the Redlegs went out ahead at 3-2. The Pirates took over again at 4-3 but Cincinnati tied it up. That's the way it stood when the Cincinnatians broke loose in the seventh.

The Pirates got a run in each the third and fourth off starter Tom Acker. Acker's wild pitch let Dick Groat score after two singles had set it up. Then in the fourth singles by Frank Thomas, Bob Skinner and Dick Groat accounted for another run.

The first of two errors by Thomas led to the first Cincinnati run in the fourth with George Crowe driving in the tally with a sacrifice fly. Frank Robinson singled home two runs in the fifth but the Pirates went back ahead in the sixth on a single by Thomas, a triple by Groat and a double by Bill Hall.

A walk, Thurman's single and Thomas' second error allowed the Redlegs to tie it up in their half.

The Redlegs, who didn't get an extra base hit in the entire game, combined five one-base blows for their three runs in the seventh. They came from Whisenant, Smoky Burgess, Crowe, Alex Grammas and Newcombe.

Crowe's hit put Cincinnati ahead and Newcombe's two-run wallop came with the bases loaded.

Harvey Haddix is due to pitch tonight for the Redlegs against Pittsburgh's Ronnie Kline.

Elliott Runs 3:55.4 Mile; Predicts 3:50

LONDON (AP) — Australian Herb Elliott ran a mile in 3:55.4 Wednesday night and said afterwards he could better 3:50.

The time was second only to Elliott's 3:54.5 world record in Dublin Aug. 6.

Promoter Terry O'Connor said Elliott contributed at least 15,000 to the crowd of 45,000, and added $22,400 to the gate.

The 20-year-old Aussie has been under 4 minutes 10 times since last January and ran the 1,500 meters in a world-record-smashing 3:36 at Goteborg, Sweden, last week.

Now his sights are set on the 1,000-meter mark. He takes aim on that mark of 2:19 in Oslo Friday. The record is held jointly by Norway's Audun Boysen and Hungary's Istvan Rozsavolgyi.

Second-place finisher was England's Brian Hewson in 3:58.9. Zbigniew Orywal of Poland was third in 3:59.7. Derek Ibbotson of England, whose listed world record of 3:57.2 twice has been bettered by the Australian, finished fourth in 4 minutes flat.

Richardson Has Cup Spot Despite Loss

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—If Hamilton Richardson wants to play on the Davis Cup team in the Challenge Round against Australia, all he has to do is say the word.

U.S. cup bigwigs were disappointed at Richardson's straight set defeat at the hands of Ulf Schmidt in the National Championships Wednesday. But they were inclined to shrug it off.

"One defeat doesn't make any difference in my way of thinking," said Cup Captain Perry Jones.

Jim Moffett, chairman of the cup Selection Committee, observed: "You can't eliminate him just because he lost to Schmidt."

The Cup Committee and the Selection Committee meet today to iron out details for the selection of players for the team. On Sunday, the Selection Committee meets alone and a team will be named.

Schmidt's next opponent will be Herbie Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif., who turned back giant-killer Chris Crawford, Piedmont, Calif., 4-6, 12-10, 6-1, 6-4. The 19-year-old Crawford had beaten Gardnar Mulloy, Barry MacKay and Australian Bob Mark in earlier rounds.

Vic Seixas, 35, continued his remarkable performance by outclassing Mike Green, Miami Beach, 6-2, 7-5, 8-6. Australia's Mal Anderson, the defending champion, ousted Britain's Billy Knight 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 8-6.

Seixas meets Australia's Ashley Cooper, an old buddy, in one quarter-final today while Neale Fraser of Australia tangles with Alex Olmedo of Peru in the other.

In the women's division, top-seeded Althea Gibson marched into the quarter-finals along with Maria Bueno of Brazil, No. 4; Christine Truman of Britain, No. 7; and Mrs. Beverly Fleitz, Long Beach, Calif., No. 8.

Farrell Says Jesting In 'Handing' Series

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A remark by Kerby Farrell, manager of the Miami Marlins, that Havana recently "handed" Columbus a four-game International League series caused the Marlin manager to appear Wednesday before George M. Trautman, president of the minor leagues.

Farrell, after making the comment Tuesday, said he made it in jest and as a psychological jab at his Marlins who followed Havana into Columbus.

Trautman's statement on the hearing will be issued later, his office reported.

Peregrination means wandering, journeying.

Investment Of Teamsters To Be Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators set out today to find out about a million-dollar Teamsters Union investment in a Detroit real estate development project.

The committee is conducting hearings on charges that Hoffa has misused union funds and connived with gangsters in labor rackets. The AFL-CIO has expelled the Teamsters as a corruptly led union.

In testimony Wednesday, Harold J. Gibbons, the Teamsters Union's top vice president and boss of its operations in the St. Louis area, acknowledged he may have violated the union's constitution when he won election last January as president of the St. Louis Teamsters council comprising some 20 locals.

He won by a 76-70 margin after allowing seven disputed votes from a Tampa, Fla., local to be counted. The committee contends the election was rigged.

Gibbons told the committee "I'm entirely willing to have a new election" to resolve the controversy.

Gibbons vigorously defended the presence on his staff of a long list of men the committee labeled as gangsters, criminals and strong arm men. He said he had neither facilities nor desire to investigate them and believed them innocent of wrongdoing as unionists.

He pleaded a lack of recollection as to many incidents of violence for which the committee attempted to blame him.

LISBON — John W. Peterson, clerk of courts, reported $3,994.31 was paid the county treasurer in fees collected in Common Pleas Court and the car title department during August.

The clerk paid $7,184.48 to state treasurer from the collection of sales and use taxes, the county receiving $72.57 for its 1 per cent poundage. The state also received $1,153.75 for car title fees.

There were 72 civil cases filed in Common Pleas Court and the Title Department issued 2947 auto titles, 31 duplicate titles, 687 memorandums, 5 duplicate memorandums, 1,390 notations of liens, 1,122 cancelations and 842 acknowledgments.

The first potential victim of the quiz scandal is "Bid 'n' Buy," which ranks among the more sportive game shows this summer. Even the sponsor (Revlon) thought so, and as an expression of confidence, recently signed a $250,000 contract with owner - producer Robert Stivers for 26 weeks of representation.

Between the signing and the latest quiz headlines, however, somebody is said to have demurred, and the fact remains that "Bid 'n' Buy" has no place to do its selling beyond the next four weeks, when it relinquishes the Tuesday night period to "The Garry Moore Show," also a Revlon sponsored program.

"We're looking for a favorable time period for 'Bid 'n' Buy,'" says a cautious spokesman, speaking what the trade has come to regard as famous last words. If that kind of discretion had been employed for the "Dotto" cancellation, it would have conceivably diverted us from what really happened.

DESPITE THE DRAFT talk concerning Steve Lawrence, he's accepting TV guest offers for this fall, the latest being the Patti Page show Oct. 8.

ABC's best-laid plans for an Orson Welles series apparently have gone astray. Instead of thinking of TV, Welles just signed as director and co-star of Errol Flynn's new movie, "The Flea Circus."

Jean Hagen, formerly Danny Thomas' assertive TV wife, took on a leading role in Walt Disney's "The Shaggy Dog" (about a boy who turns into a dog) and remarked: "I made up my mind after the Danny Thomas show — no more mother roles, but how often does an actress get to play the mother of a dog?"

Inflation note: The price for each of Shirley Temple's "Storybook" talks has increased from $100,000 to $175,000.

Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York is the author of the best description yet heard of the ratings. He calls them "the soulless evaluation of the artistry of a human performance."

DISTAFF VIEWERS have Dr. Joyce Brothers to thank for a detailed account of what the average woman is worth — alive, on the hoof — to her husband. The former quiz heroine, now conducting her own afternoon show on WRCA-TV, was put on the subject by a letter from a viewer, and Dr. Brothers made an impressive attempt to get to the heart of the matter.

She asked six of her friends to keep a record for two weeks of how much time they spent on their various household jobs. The average breakdown was:

Two hours as accountant.
Two hours as secretary.
Three hours as gardener.
Four hours as comparison shopper.
Five hours as chauffeur.
Seven hours as seamstress.
Ten hours as cleaning woman.
Ten hours as laundress.
Thirty hours as general cook and housekeeper.

Thirty - two to thirty - three hours as child nurse or as nurse for sick husband.

Concluded Dr. Brothers: "That totals over 106 hours a week—and what happened to the 40—hour work week? Totalling these figures with the prevailing hourly rates of pay for those jobs as reported in the AFL-CIO News made each wife worth more than $175 a week."

And that, mind you, doesn't even take in time-and-a-half rates for overtime!

New Legion Commander To Be Elected

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Legion national convention moves into its concluding session today with another full round of speeches and resolutions. But the high-point of the day will be election of a national commander.

While the votes are yet to be cast, Preston Grover, 38, Stillwater, Okla., was considered a shoo-in for the post.

Speakers today include Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the Chinese Nationalist president, and Luis Munoz Marin, governor of Puerto Rico.

The Legion's 3,000 delegates polished off one of the thornier issues of their 40th annual convention when they rejected by a 6-1 majority a proposal that the Legion back a $100 monthly pension for all World War I veterans at the age of 60 regardless of health or need.

After long debate, the Legion approved its traditional stand for pensions based on need.

However, the successful resolution added these liberalizing amendments to the present pension stand: an increase in monthly disability pension rates, a provision veterans receive permanent and totally disabled pension payments at 65 regardless of health, and lifting of restrictive outside income limitations.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The National Cash Register Co. and the National Cash Register Employes Independent Union have agreed on a new two-year contract for the NCR plant here, the company announced Wednesday. The new contract calls for wage increases of 15 cents an hour or 2½ per cent of base pay, whichever is greater, effective May 29, 1959.

Jimmie Burnett, 30, of St. Paul, Minn., has confessed to his part in the robbery which netted $3,982. He has not been brought to trial.

Council At Chester Hears Complaints

The problems of the Fairview Rd. district in Chester — including holes in the roadway, foul odors, speeding motorists and stray dogs —were presented to Chester Council Wednesday night.

William Tuttle of Fairview Rd. spoke to Council on the conditions in his area, first complaining about home sewer drainage onto the highway, causing a stench.

City Clerk Roy Cashdollar was to notify the Hancock County Health Department about the condition today.

Tuttle requested better police patrol of the area, declaring cars travel at a high rate of speed—"They drive like maniacs."

He also asked if the road could be improved, claiming he has broken four shock absorbers and a window in his car because of the rough condition.

Councilman John Abrams advised Tuttle the county is scheduled to improve the road, along with Lawrenceville Rd., in the current road program.

When Tuttle complained of dogs running at large in the area, Councilman John Olash said he will notify the county dog warden of the complaint.

In other street matters, Miss Alda Fowler of Carolina Ave. asked about costs of resurfacing Alley P, between Carolina Ave. and Church Alley. She reported the alley is in poor condition. The matter was referred to the street committee for an estimate.

Beaver Man Injured In Salem Area Crash

George R. Gula, 25, of VanBuren Homes, Beaver, is in "fair" condition today at Alliance City Hospital with injuries suffered when his car crashed into a culvert on the Homeworth - Salem Rd. Wednesday night at 10:30.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Gula, traveling at a high rate of speed, lost control on a curve and the car struck the culvert. He suffered cuts of the chin, eyebrow and arm, possible internal injuries and bruises of the chest and abdomen.

Student Nurse Given Scholarship

Mrs. Sarah E. Davis, left, receives from Mrs. Jane Calhoun, right, a check for a scholarship for Miss Neva Jameson, at Mrs. Davis' left, during an informal ceremony Wednesday afternoon at City Hospital. Mrs. Edna Jones looks on.

Mrs. Davis is director of nurses at City Hospital, Mrs. Calhoun, of Lisbon, is president of the Columbiana County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and Mrs. Jones is educational director of the cancer group.

Miss Jameson, pre - clinic student in the hospital Nurses' Training School, received the scholarship in recognition of her scholastic ability and assistance in the work of the society.

A 1958 graduate of East Liverpool High School, Miss Jameson ranked 10th in her class and was a member of the Future Nurses of America Club. Mrs. Jones, who is also public school nurse, and Mrs. Jane Jolly, executive secretary of the county cancer group, said Miss Jameson assisted in many phases of work with the organization.

The initial check for $150 will cover tuition for one year and the remainder of the scholarship will be given in the next two years, totaling $400 for the three-year course.

Miss Jameson began her studies Tuesday morning.

Vote Registration Staff Will Receive Oaths Sept. 15

The 64 men and women who will staff East Liverpool's 32 voting places Tuesday, Sept. 16, in a city-wide drive to enroll voters for the November general election will take the oath of office in a group and receive verbal instructions at a meeting on the eve of the campaign.

The registrars' meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 15, at 7:30 at the Election Board office at 129 W. 6th St., opposite City Hall.

The precinct registration drive is scheduled from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 10 p. m. on Sept. 16.

A thorough list of typewritten instructions, covering nearly three sheets of legal size paper, has been prepared in advance for the registrars by Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board. Two registrars—a Republican and a Democrat—will be appointed for each precinct. One will be designated as the chief registrar and the other will be appointed registrar.

At the meeting on the eve of the drive, the registrars will receive instructions on procedure and an explanation of Ohio registration law.

The advance instruction sheet cautions that registrars must guard against possible duplication of enrollment. After obtaining the would-be voter's name, they should first check the precinct registration record to find if he already is qualified, O'Hanlon emphasized.

In such drives, persons sometimes forget they are qualified and go to the registration center to be enrolled, he said.

Persons who have changed their address since voting last must apply for transfers, but first the registrar should check the records to determine if the voter is registered in the precinct where he formerly resided, O'Hanlon said. If the voter is not qualified, he must register instead of transferring, he explained.

Zoning Plans Will Be Aired

St. Clair Trustees, Commission Meet

Plans for a St. Clair Township meeting at which a zoning engineer will discuss community planning were aired at a session of the township trustees and the township Zoning Commission on Wednesday night.

A seven-tenths mill levy will be submitted at the November general election in the township, designed to provide some $3,000 for zoning.

Members of the commission last night reported on a recent meeting with Boardman Township zoning authorities who recommended the St. Clair group obtain the services of a qualified zoning engineer. The Boardman group suggested D. B. Rhodes of Youngstown.

The trustees and the commission members agreed to schedule a public meeting in mid-October at which Rhodes could speak.

The proposed levy, a one-year measure, would provide funds for mapping and other needed procedures for setting up a zoning program which would allott business, industrial and residential areas under a "controlled growth" plan for the township.

Members of the commission attending the meeting were Thomas Worcester, Paul Brown, Harvey Cottrill and Wilmer Bryson.

The trustees will meet again Monday night.

Beaver Signup Opens For Farming Program

The signup in Beaver County for the 1959 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank is now open at the and Conservation Office in Beaver, G. M. Swick, chairman, announced.

The first step in the signup is for the farmer interested in the program to report at the county office and request that annual rental payment rates be established for his farm.

At the same time, the farmer should bring information to be used by the County ASC in establishing rates for his farm. The chief facts needed, Swick said, are acreage and yields of the three principal crops on the farm for the past two years and acreages for other land use on the farm.

The Conservation Reserve is the only Soil Bank program available for 1959. Under the program, farmers retire land from general crops for up to 10 years and devote the reserved acreage to land, water, or wildlife conservation practices. The government makes an annual rental payment for the land and will also share in the cost of establishing the conservation practices.

Hoop Craze Spreads To City As Merchants Await Stock

East Liverpool stores with toy and novelty departments are bracing themselves for the arrival of major shipments of those big plastic hoops that have the country—the crazy, man, crazy section, that is—gyrating and shaking inside the newest plaything to hit the nation.

Sales of the hoops, first introduced in a television show some weeks ago, receiving a reception that caught manufacturers by surprise, has been marked by pushing crowds of children, teen-agers—and adults trying to buy them.

Only a few of the hoops have reached local stores and they were immediately gobbled up. One dealer received a limited shipment of 200 and they were sold two hours after they reached the counter. Another has a waiting list of 50 persons signed up for the seemingly precious toy.

Since the hoop craze hit California last month, the large city stores have received top priority on shipments from the 50 hoop manufacturers who have found prosperity in a recession-riddled economy. But the demands of the smaller communities should soon be met. At least one shipment is expected in East Liverpool by tomorrow.

There is apparent unanimity among local dealers regarding the popularity of the hoops. They believe the multi-color, plastic or fiberglass ring is one of the biggest things to hit the toy business in years and that their early shipments will not begin to meet the demand.

One dealer commented that he had not seen anything like the hoop craze in his 20 years in the toy business.

The hoops, which can be used like skip ropes, rotated on the hips, whirled on a stick or around the neck, and even for reducing purposes, sell for $1 to $1.98. The more expensive one is of fiberglass construction, while the cheaper hoop is made of plastic.

Hoop clubs have been organized, one with 300 members; there are marathons under way with one contestant claiming a record of 3,000 turns—by a 10-year-old boy—and fat women have been swinging them around their hips for obvious reasons.

It could be the summer heat, or possibly jittery nerves in a world on the brink of war, but the hoop fad is here.

Child Suffers Scalds; Football Player Hurt

A city youngster scalded by hot water and a football player hurt in practice were treated Wednesday at City Hospital, along with a Wellsville man and a Chester area woman injured in falls.

Virgil Wright Jr., 22-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wright of Dresden Ave., was treated for scalds of the arm and thigh received when he pulled a container of hot water from a table.

John Jennings, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jennings of Harrison St., Newell, suffered an injury of the right shoulder in football practice.

Mrs. Ethel Gregory of 3rd St. Ext., Chester, received an injury of the right foot in a fall at home.

Jim Pugi of 13th St., Wellsville, suffered a chest injury in a fall over a bench.

Hoop Craze Spreads To City As Merchants Await Stock

East Liverpool stores with toy and novelty departments are bracing themselves for the arrival of major shipments of those big plastic hoops that have the country—the crazy, man, crazy section, that is—gyrating and shaking inside the newest plaything to hit the nation.

Sales of the hoops, first introduced in a television show some weeks ago, receiving a reception that caught manufacturers by surprise, has been marked by pushing crowds of children, teen-agers—and adults trying to buy them.

Only a few of the hoops have reached local stores and they were immediately gobbled up. One dealer received a limited shipment of 200 and they were sold two hours after they reached the counter. Another has a waiting list of 50 persons signed up for the seemingly precious toy.

Social Security Payments Up

9,000 Countians Benefit

The Social Security amendments of 1958 will provide increased monthly payments to about 9,000 persons in Columbiana County, according to William McCauley, Social Security district manager in Youngstown. Mahoning County has 21,000 due to receive the increased checks next February.

The amount of the increase will be about 7 per cent, although some checks will be slighlty more, slightly less in others.

People who are already getting Social Security payments do not need to apply for the increase. It will be automatically added to the checks, which will be mailed out early in February.

Under other changes made by the new law, Social Security benefits will become payable to a number of people not previously eligible. They must, however, apply to their Social Security offices before payments can start. Among the groups now eligible because of the amendments are:

Dependents of people who are 50 or over who are now getting disability insurance benefits (children under 18 or disabled; a wife of any age who has a child in her care who is entitled to benefits; a wife 62 or over; or a dependent husband 65 or over.

McCauley explained that there are about 500 disabled people receiving disability insurance benefits in the two-county area, who might be affected by this provision.

Disabled people 50 or over who could not qualify for benefits under the old law because they did not have as much as 1½ years of work in the 3 years before they were disabled. (A total of at least 5 years of work under the law is still required).

Dependent parents whose son or daughter died after 1939 and who could not qualify for benefits under the old law because the son or daughter left a widow, widower or child.

Adopted children whose adopting parent began receiving retirement benefits less than 3 years after the adoption. (In many cases this provision will also make possible payments to the mother of the adopted child).

A person receiving benefits who marries another person also receiving benefits can continue to receive monthly checks, or can become eligible as a dependent of the new husband or wife without waiting 3 years.

Some people in situations similar to those mentioned above may have applied for benefits in the past and been notified that they did not qualify for payments. These people should get in touch with their Social Security district ofrices promptly about filing new applications, McCauley noted.

Disabled workers whose Social Security disability benefits were reduced or were not payable because they received workmen's compensation or other federal disablility payments will begin to receive the full amount of their Social Security disability payments. (These people do not have to file applications. Their Social Security checks will be started automatically with checks mailed early in September).

Under the amendments it is easier for certain employees of non-profit organizations and state and local governments to be under the law.

There is a slight change in the rules on how much a Social Security beneficiary may earn and still get Social Security benefit payments. Under a new provision a person's Social Security benefit will not be withheld for any month in which he neither worked in his own business nor earned over $100 in wages.

Beginning Jan. 1, the Social Security tax rate for employes and employers will be 2½ per cent each. The rate for self-employed people will be 3¾ per cent. These rates are scheduled to increase every 3 years until they reach 4½ per cent for employes and employers and 6¾ per cent for self-employed people in 1969.

Starting with 1959 the first $4,800 of earnings in a year will be taxed for Social Security and will count toward Social Security benefits.

The Youngstown Social Security District office is at 123-125 W. Commerce St. It is open Monday through Friday, from 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m. McCauley emphasized that it is not necessary for people already receiving monthly payments to apply for the automatic increase. It will be added to the checks, which will be delivered early in February.

"Inquiries about the automatic increase will slow down our effort to start payments promptly to the people who can now get payments for the first time," he said.

O'Neill Aides Seek Answer To Question On Sales Tax

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Aides of Gov. C. William O'Neill, Republican incumbent, are seeking answers to a sales tax question.

Democrats asked whether the governor's campaign committee owed $6,000 in taxes on $2 tickets sold for a series of 11 picnics throughout the state.

They also asked whether free tickets to the widely attended picnics violated the corrupt practices act banning gifts to voters.

O'Neill withheld comment. His office said the picnic caterer offered to submit a statement for sales taxes before he is required to file a year end report.

Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers said the tax is due from the picnic committee on any tickets sold. He said he had not received a letter from the caterer proposing settlement of any picnic sales taxes owed.

Caterer Robert Johnson of Columbus, who previously said he provided picnic dinners for 85 cents a plate, was unavailable for comment. Johnson said the 85 cent rate prevailed because more than 6,000 were served at the picnics.

Merrill D. Brothers, Democratic nominee for Ohio Supreme Court judge, stirred up the tax question. He asked Atty. Gen. William Saxbe, GOP incumbent, for an investigation. Saxbe's office said the matter was up to the tax department unless an assessment went unpaid.

Brothers also called for grand jury investigations in Franklin and Tuscarawas Counties, where two of the picnics were held, to determine whether there had been corrupt practices violations.

Bowers said sales tax regulations are clear and have been tested through the state's highest court. He added that he would abide by those regulations.

Dale Fulton, governor's secretary on leave at Republican state headquarters, handled picnic arrangements. Asked what he planned to do about the ticket situation, he said: "I just don't know."

Social Security Payments Up

9,000 Countians Benefit

The Social Security amendments of 1958 will provide increased monthly payments to about 9,000 persons in Columbiana County, according to William McCauley, Social Security district manager in Youngstown. Mahoning County has 21,000 due to receive the increased checks next February.

The amount of the increase will be about 7 per cent, although some checks will be slighlty more, slightly less in others.

People who are already getting Social Security payments do not need to apply for the increase. It will be automatically added to the checks, which will be mailed out early in February.

How Can I? ? ?

DiSalle Ends Tour Of Ohio

More Support This Time, He Declares

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)— Michael V. DiSalle ended a tour of Ohio's 88 counties here Wednesday. The Democratic candidate for governor said he is getting support this year that was lacking when he lost in his bid for governor two years ago.

DiSalle discussed plans with 75 Medina County Democratic leaders. His appearance here followed a speech by Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio), who is seeking a third term.

Bricker, speaking at the county fair, credited Republicans and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson for passage of the recent farm bill which, he said, "could be the most important farm legislation enacted in 20 years."

Election of a Republican Congress is important to maintain farm legislation gains, he said.

DiSalle commented that the Democratic campaign at this point is in excellent shape.

Referring to Medina County, a traditional Republican stronghold, DiSalle said:

"We are going to try to close the gap. Medina County is no longer rural and lost to the Democrats."

On his swing through Ohio DiSalle said he found public interest primarily in security and unemployment. The growing tax burden in Ohio is another concern, he said.

A U.S. Saving Bond is given as an award to each graduating senior. The organization provides other incidentals for the band during the year.

Liberal Policy Cited For Korean Vet School

William Holsinger, manager of the Cleveland Veterans Administration Regional Office, said today that approximately 26,000 Korean War veterans in the Cleveland Regional Area, who started training under the Korean education program but have since interrupted their studies for more than 12 months, may now find it possible to resume their training as provided under a more liberalized policy recently by the VA.

The law provides in effect that veterans away from the school program more than a year can get back into training if they are able to show that interruption was beyond their control. The new policy re - defines the conditions considered beyond the veteran's control.

The more important conditions found possible under the new policy include obligations or debts that made it necessary to stop training to obtain employment, personal or family illness or death in the family, and a 12-month period ending during vacation during which time it was not possible to re-enter school.

Veterans interested in re-entering training should contact the Steubenville Veterans Administration Office as well as those in doubt about their status under the GI Educational Program.

The six-point chairmen and Sam Amato, general program chairman, outlined the October programs.

Fr. John Wirtz, assistant pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, will speak at the next meeting Tuesday night.

James Ross, grand knight, presided.

Dr. Smart was minister at the Temple Methodist Church in Taunton, Devenshire, one of the largest congregations in the West of England.

For 15 years he served as a London missioner in charge of Central Halls. He served for some time in the slums and became recognized as one of the city's pioneer social workers.

Through his efforts and the books he wrote on the slum conditions, he prompted a great social reform in London and in acknowledgement was given a seat on one of the committees of the London County Council.

He also established himself as a lecturer in difference denominational colleges and universities.

Dr. Smart and his wife were in Nebraska in 1954 where he lectured at the University of Nebraska and the University of Omaha.

Teamsters Monitors Are Set To Block Hoffa Plan In Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters monitors headed into federal court today to protest a plan by union boss James R. Hoffa which would wipe out their existence as a Teamsters corruption cleanup squad.

Hoffa, expressing impatience with reform orders from the monitor watchdog group, disclosed Wednesday night he plans a new union convention as a step to end the monitor setup and get his critics out of his hair.

It was learned that Monitor Chairman Martin F. O'Donoghue advised Hoffa not to issue any convention call.

O'Donoghue was reported intent on finding out from U.S. Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts whether the monitors can forbid such a convention and get court backing for cleanup directives to Hoffa which the Teamsters boss has ignored in some cases.

Hoffa himself questioned whether the monitors can properly require that the union name an outside prosecutor to bring ouster charges against one of Hoffa's closest union cronies, Owen (Bert) Brennan, a union vice president from Detroit

Brennan is one of half a dozen Hoffa aides who have figured in Senate Rackets Committee disclosures and whom the monitors have recommended for suspension from union office and power.
